AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of December, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the "Church Building Acts," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parishes of Swanscombe and Stone, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said parishes, and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Greenhithe, in the said parish of Swanscombe, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named or called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Greenhithe,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry of Greenhithe commences at the wharf marked A in the map hereunto annexed, and known by the name of Hunt's Wharf, and proceeds in a southerly direction along the eastern side of the tramway which adjoins the fields numbered 124, 125, 126, respectively, on the title commutation map of the said parish of Swanscombe; then proceeds along the hedge, up the cliff which adjoins and overhangs the fields, numbered 130, 131, on the same map; then crosses the London turnpike-road, and proceeds in a south-westerly direction along the middle of the road called Knockholt-lane, and adjoining the fields numbered 135, 136, 164, in the same map; then proceeds along the hedge which separates the property called Knock-holt Lodge and Cottages from the fields numbered 164, 137, 157; then proceeds again along the middle of Knockholt-lane in a south-westerly and southerly direction till it reaches the Roman-road at the south-east corner of the field numbered 168; then proceeds in a north-westerly direction along the middle of the Roman-road till it reaches the lane called Bean-lane; then proceeds in a northerly direction along the middle of Bean-lane till it reaches the London-road, which it crosses, and enters the field numbered 19 in the said tithe commutation map, and proceeds in a northerly direction along the line which marks the division between the parishes of Swanscombe and Stone till it reaches the railway; then proceeds in a north-westerly direction along the southern fence of the railway to the first archway under the said railway; then proceeds about fifty yards in a south-westerly direction at the back of four cottages belonging to Mr. Tilden; then proceeds in a due westerly direction till it meets the tramway, then turns to the north-east and proceeds in a straight line till it reaches the river Thames at a point twenty yards to the west of the tramway, and marked B in the plan or map hereunto annexed; then proceeds along the bank of the river in an easterly direction till it reaches the point A, where the boundary-line of the said consolidated chapelry commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green and blue:

"That the consents of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, and also patron in right of his see of the parish church of the said parish of Stone, and of the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College, in the University of Cambridge, patrons of the parish church of the said parish of Swanscombe, have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Greenhithe, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof the said George, Bishop of Rochester, has signed and sealed this representation, and the said Master and Fellows have hereto affixed their common or corporate seal:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said George, Bishop of Rochester, and the said Master and Fellows, as such respective patrons as aforesaid (testified as aforesaid), with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinbefore mentioned, and of the said George, Bishop of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation
