

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein-named Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Bristol and Gloucester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of December, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," and of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following, viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, beg leave humbly to represent that on or about the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, your Majesty's said Commissioners made a representation to your Majesty in Council, that it appeared to them to be expedient, and they therefore humbly prayed, that the boundaries of the district chapelry called Saint John's District, which was assigned to Saint John's Church, in the parish of Richmond, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in conformity with the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' should be altered, under or by virtue of the powers or authorities for such purpose, contained in the sixth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts,' and the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amend-

'ment of the Church Building Acts,' and that in lieu of the boundaries set forth in such last-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, the boundaries described in the said representation, and next hereinafter mentioned, should be substituted for those comprised in the said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; that is to say: the boundary line of Saint John's District, to commence on the west side of the high road leading from Richmond-hill, on the east side of Home Castle, to a boundary line of Richmond Parish North, so as to include the conduit, and also that part of the ground in Richmond parish, which is occupied by William Frederick Gostling, Esq., north-east along the boundary line separating the parishes of Richmond and Mortlake, as far as Sandy-lane, then westward down Sandy-lane, into Kew-road, south-west along the middle of Kew-road, to the boundary fence separating the Royal Gardens from part of the Old Deer Park, then running westerly along such fence for about three hundred yards, then running south-westerly to the corner of the wall of the footpath, and continuing along such boundary wall until it reaches the bridge over the line of the Windsor, Staines, and South-Western Railway, near the north corner of Richmond-green, and entrance into the Old Deer Park, then easterly along the north side of the line of that railway, up to the railway bridge in Park Shot-road, formerly called Kewfoot-lane, and passing thence south-westerly along the road, to the corner of Duke-street, then up that street, eastwardly along the south side of the late Mechanics' Institution (formerly the site of the Old Town Pond), and along the middle of the road leading from Richmond to Marsh Gate, as far as Spring-terrace, south-west to the end of Spring-terrace, and the corner of a road, formerly a Worple-way, leading to Mount Ararat, then southerly along that road to Friars Stile, then south-easterly along the north-east side of the footway through a field leading to Home Castle, to the point where the boundary commences, as the same was more particularly delineated on the plan annexed to the said representation, and thereon coloured pink.

"That by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, your Majesty was pleased by and with the advice of your Privy Council, to approve of the said representation; and to order that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the boundaries of the said district, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and was further pleased to direct that such order should be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that having taken into consideration the present circumstances of the said parish of Richmond, and also of the said district so assigned to the said church of Saint John, and since altered as aforesaid; it appears to them to be expedient that the boundaries of such district should be again altered under or by virtue of the said powers or authorities contained in the Acts so passed in the third and fourth, and in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign as aforesaid, and that the boundaries next hereinafter set forth, should be substituted for those comprised in the said Order of your Majesty in Council, of the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two; that is to say: the boundary line of Saint John's District, to commence on the west side of the high road leading from Richmond-hill,
