

the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the Great Synagogue Jewish burial-ground, in the parish of St. Matthew, BETHNAL-GREEN, from the first of January to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard of the parish of FYNESBURY, Hunts, from the first of February to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the parish churchyard of GODALMING from the first of February, to the sixteenth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard of the parish of HITCHIN, Herts, from the first of January to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyard, and in Ebenezer Chapel burial-ground, Mill End, near RICKMANSWORTH, from the first of January to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the old churchyard of the parish of SARRATT, Herts, from the first of February to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

In the churchyards of St. Giles and St. Mary, and in the burial-grounds of the Baptist and Independent Chapels, STONEY STRATFORD, from the thirty-first of January to the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of the parish of ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE, from and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and such time was afterwards extended to the first of October in that year, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the said churchyard of Ashton-under-Lyne be discontinued, except in graves never previously buried in, and except in family graves which can be opened to the depth of five feet and a half without exposure of remains, provided no coffin be placed within a foot of any other coffin, unless buried in a vault or walled grave in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an airtight manner.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued, with certain exceptions therein mentioned, in the GENERAL CEMETERY in the old parish of BIRMINGHAM, from and after the sixth of October then next, and it was also thereby directed that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, no grave but a family-grave should be re-opened in the said cemetery within a period of fourteen years, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order, so far as it relates to the said General Cemetery in Birmingham, be postponed until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the old churchyard of the parish of BROADWATER, Sussex, from and after the eighth of April then next, and it seems fit that so much of the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be discontinued in the said old churchyard, except in now existing vaults and brick graves, provided that, when required, they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work cemented in an airtight manner, and except in reserved earthen graves, provided they be opened without disturbing human remains, and that no body be buried without a covering of four feet six-inches of earth.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued as therein mentioned in the two parish churchyards, and in the burial-grounds of Ivend Chapel, the Friends' Chapel, Zion Chapel, the Union Chapel, and of the General Baptist Chapel, in CHATTERIS, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the rights of burial in all the family vaults, catacombs, and brick graves, now existing in the said two churchyards (including those catacombs in the old churchyard not yet disposed of) and in the said burial-grounds, be reserved, provided that, when required, such vaults, catacombs, and brick graves, be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the eighth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to cease entirely from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the burial-ground attached to the church of Christchurch, in St. Clements, NORWICH, and it seems fit that the said order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that, with the same exception, no grave be
