

re-opened, and that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, burials cease entirely in the said burial-ground attached to the church of Christchurch, in St. Clements, Norwich.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued on and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the old and new churchyards of St. Chad, SHREWSBURY, except as was therein excepted, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the use of the eleven walled graves, hereinafter named, be permitted, subject to the conditions contained in the said Order of the twenty-first of August last, viz.:—brick graves in the old churchyard belonging to Mrs. Susannah Parry, Mr. John Harrison, Miss Bowman, and Mr. John Wynne;—brick graves in the new churchyard belonging to William Cowper, Esq., Mr. Robert Carden, Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Robert Rogerson, Mr. Richard Clarke, Mr. Thomas Davies, Mr. John Edwards, and Mrs. Peplow.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the fourth of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, certain directions were given, in respect of burials in the parish churchyard of OLD SWINFORD, and it seems fit that the operation of the said Order be in part postponed; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the operation of so much of the said Order in Council of the fourth of April last as respects the new part of the said churchyard, be postponed until the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, interments were directed to be wholly discontinued (except in then existing private vaults) in the churchyard of St. Paul, WARRINGTON, from and after the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and such time has since been extended to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that interment be discontinued in the said churchyard of St. Paul, WARRINGTON, from and after the said twenty-fifth of March, except in family vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be imbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner, and, except in family graves, every coffin is to be at least four-and-a-half feet beneath the surface of the soil.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Vestry Clerks of the undermentioned parishes, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation, stating, that for the protection of the public health, burials should be forthwith discontinued in the undermentioned places; viz.:

ST. MARY, WHITECHAPEL.—Forthwith wholly under the parish church of Saint Mary, Whitechapel.

ST. ALPHAGE, GREENWICH.—Forthwith in the vaults under the parish church of Saint Alphage, Greenwich.

ST. LEONARD, SHOREDITCH, AND ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, HOXTON.—Forthwith wholly in the vaults under the parish church of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and under the church of Saint John the Baptist, Hoxton.

ST. MARK'S, CLERKENWELL.—Forthwith under the church of Saint Mark's, Myddleton-square, Clerkenwell.

ST. GILES-IN-THE-FIELDS.—Forthwith under the chapel attached to the new burial-ground belonging to the parish of Saint Giles-in-the-Fields, situate in Old St. Pancras-road.

ST. DUNSTAN-IN-THE-WEST.—Forthwith wholly under the parish church of Saint Dunstan-in-the-West.

CHRIST CHURCH, SPITALFIELDS.—Forthwith beneath Christ Church, Spitalfields, and also in the vaults under the entrance steps and porch of the said church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twelfth day of March next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parishes, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said twelfth day of March.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of February, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that
