*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 20, 1857.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at St. Petersburg, inclosing copy of a notice which appeared in the Journal de Saint Pétersbourg, of the 1st of April, and of which the following is a translation.

Vessels arriving in Russian Baltic ports will no longer be required to produce acquittances of Sound duties or certificates of Danish quarantine previously to being allowed to enter.

Masters of vessels will be acquainted by notices, that henceforth they will be required to furnish themselves in the ports of lading with certificates, attesting the sanitary state of the country from which they come, which certificates must be attested by the Russian Consular Agent; or to procure certificates of quarantine in the English, French, Dutch, or Norwegian ports which they may have put into, these certificates being also required to be legally attested by a Russian Consular Agent.

CONTRACT FOR WINE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, April 13, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 27th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford,

Wine (White) Marsala, 2,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the wine.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the wine, in pints from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, or to Commander Bevis conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Wine," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

CONTRACTS FOR STAVES AND IRON HOOPS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-House, April 13, 1857.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 30th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth, the undermentioned articles, viz.:

DEPTFORD.

Baltic Pipe Staves, 50 mille; Quebec Pipe Staves, 30 mille; 20 mille of the Baltic Staves and 10 mille of the Quebec Staves to be delivered by the 30th June, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering. New Iron Butt Hoops, 60 tons; New Iron Stout Plate Hoops, 79 tons; New Iron Slight Plate Hoops, 60 tons; half of each to be delivered by the 30th June, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

GOSPORT.

Baltic Pipe Staves, 4 mille; Quebec Pipe Staves, 4 mille; half of each to be delivered by the 31st July, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering. New Iron Butt Hoops, 7½ tons; New Iron Stout Plate Hoops, 12¼ tons; New Iron Slight Plate Hoops, 1 ton; half of each to be delivered by the 31st July, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

PLYMOUTH.

Baltic Pipe Staves, 12 mille; Quebec Pipe Staves, 4 mille; half of each to be delivered by the 30th September, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering. New Iron Butt Hoops, 23 tons; half to be delivered by the 30th September, 1857, and the remainder by the 31st December, 1857, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles, but separate tenders must be made for each port, and no attention will be paid to any offers not so made.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

Samples of the articles may be seen at the Victualling Yards at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
