The Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester.

IN pursuance of Her Majesty's commands, these are to give public notice, that upon the melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, Her Majesty's Aunt, it is expected that all persons do put themselves into decent Mourning for ten days, to commence from Thursday next, the 7th May.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

Whitehall, May 1, 1857.

THE following Addresses of congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of another Princess, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, were presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty the QUEEN.

AS Governour of the Military Knights of Windsor, I most humbly and respectfully approach your Majesty, on the happy event which has taken place in the Birth of a Princess, to offer, on the part of my brethren and myself, heartfelt and sincere congratulation; and to assure your Majesty, that we take a lively interest in everything that contributes to the comfort and happiness of your Most Excellent Majesty and Royal Consort, His Royal Highness Prince Albert; and that we earnestly pray, that you may long live, and continue to set a bright example of domestic happiness and virtue to an admiring and devoted nation.

The above Address, with the most profound respect, is humbly submitted.

Chas. Moore, Major, Govr., M. K.W.

Lower Ward, Windsor Castle, 24th April, 1857.
