

ment, for his life or for any greater estate, to property, real or personal, or to any Government pension, or be admitted to any office tenable for life or during good behaviour (not being an ecclesiastical office within the University of Oxford), and who shall retain such benefice, property, pension, or office, for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution, accession, or admission thereto, shall, if the annual value of such ecclesiastical benefice (being a benefice with cure of souls) clear of deductions (except for property or income-tax), shall exceed Three hundred pounds, or if the annual income derivable by him from such property, pension, or office, or from any ecclesiastical benefice without cure of souls, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources, (including or not including a benefice with cure of souls), clear of deductions as aforesaid, shall exceed Five hundred pounds, vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of such twelve calendar months; and for this purpose the income which the estimated value of any property would produce, if invested in Government securities at the price current at the time of the acquisition thereof, shall, in case of doubt, be considered to be the income derivable from such property. Except as aforesaid, no Fellow shall be disqualified for retaining his Fellowship by reason of his having become possessed of any property or income, or been instituted to any benefice.

13. In certain excepted cases Fellows may be elected and admitted without public notice of the vacancy, and without examination, and without the period of probation required by the Statutes, and although the persons elected be married, and although they be in possession of any benefice, property, pension, or office, which would in ordinary cases render the possessor ineligible, and although they may not have passed the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, provided such persons are otherwise qualified for election. The excepted cases shall be as follows:—

- (a.) Any Professor or Public Lecturer within the University, for whose election a majority of the votes of the Warden and all the Fellows qualified to vote in the election of Fellows shall have been given.
- (b.) Any Principal of a Hall within the University, not being a private Hall, and any person of eminence in literature, science, or art, on whom the University in Convocation shall have conferred a degree, either by diploma or by decree of Convocation, or any honorary degree; provided that two-thirds of the votes of the Warden and all the Fellows qualified to vote in the election of Fellows shall have been given for the election of such Principal or other person as last aforesaid.

14. The election in such excepted cases shall always be held more than thirty days before the usual stated day of election, and the electors may at the time of election determine the rank which the person elected shall hold in the College, without reference to the date of his election, provided that such rank shall confer no other than honorary privileges: provided also, that no married Fellow shall be entitled to rooms in the College, nor to any allowance in respect of rooms.

15. Any Fellow who shall marry or become possessed of any benefice, property, pension, or office which would in ordinary cases disqualify him for continuing a Fellow may nevertheless, if he shall then be a Professor or Public Lecturer in the University, be retained in his Fellowship by a majority of the votes of the Warden and all the Fellows qualified to vote in the election of Fellows, or if he shall be Principal of any Hall (not being a private Hall), by two-thirds of the votes of the Warden and all the Fellows qualified as aforesaid: Provided that this power shall be exercised, if at all, at some stated general meeting previous to the day on which the Fellowship would be otherwise vacated.

16. Every Professor, Public Lecturer, or Principal of a Hall elected to or retained in a Fellowship by virtue of either of the foregoing clauses numbered 13 and 15, shall upon ceasing to hold such Professorship, Public Lectureship, or Principalship, vacate his Fellowship.

17. It shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows qualified as aforesaid, at stated general meetings, to elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships within the College. Persons so elected shall be termed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as Fellows, or to receive any emolument whatever, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Warden and Fellows shall by resolution from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the mode of election thereto, may also be determined by the Warden and Fellows from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not, in the construction of this Ordinance, be counted among the Fellows of the College, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College.

18. Every Fellow who shall be elected to and accept a Headship or Fellowship in any other College shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship.

19. No Fellow shall be disqualified for retaining his Fellowship by reason of sickness or infirmity.

20. The provisions respecting the residence of Fellows, and the mode of granting leave of absence from the University, contained in the existing Statutes shall be henceforth void. The Warden and Fellows shall at the first stated general meeting, or as soon afterwards as conveniently may be, make such regulations respecting the residence of Fellows within the University, and respecting the mode in which, and the conditions under which, leave of absence may be granted to any Fellow, as they may deem expedient for the interests of the College as a place of learning and education, and may vary such regulations from time to time, and may enforce such regulations, if they shall think fit, by pecuniary penalties, and in case of contumacious non-compliance, by deprivation. Such regulations shall be made and varied at stated general meetings only. In the meantime and until such regulations can be made, the Warden and Fellows may at any ordinary meeting or meetings make provisional regulations for the same purposes, which shall be binding on the members of the College.

21. It shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows to suspend indefinitely, or for such periods as they may think proper, the election to the first and eleventh Fellowships which shall become vacant after the approval of this Ordinance, and to apply the emoluments of the Fellowships or Fellowship so suspended to the augmentation of the number or of the stipends or allowances of the Postmasters, Scholars, and Exhibitioners within the College, or to the maintenance or endowment of Lectureships within the College, or partly to some and partly to others of those objects, in such manner and proportions as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

22. The third, fifth, seventh, and ninth Fellowships which shall become vacant after the approval of this Ordinance shall not be filled up, and the emoluments thereof, to an amount not exceeding Eight hundred pounds per annum, shall be applied to the maintenance of a Professorship of Physiology, to be called the "Linaere Professorship of Physiology," which shall be established within the Uni-
