

offences not being such as require deprivation; and respecting the reading of the Statutes; and respecting the custody of the monies and other goods of the College, other than the muniments and seal, shall be henceforth void. The Master and Fellows shall from time to time make such regulations as they may deem necessary or desirable for effecting the main objects which the aforesaid particular provisions or any of them are respectively intended to effect; and may enforce such regulations by such penalties as they shall think fit, subject to such right of appeal to the Lord Chancellor on the part of any person who may deem himself aggrieved thereby as is herein-after provided.

39. If in any case it shall appear to the Lord Chancellor that, by reason of any change in the value of money, any specific sum fixed by this Ordinance, or which may be hereafter fixed in exercise of any power given by this Ordinance, has become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the general interests of the College, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor from time to time, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, to direct that such annual sum shall be increased or diminished as he shall think fit, and the increased or diminished sum shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sum originally fixed as aforesaid.

40. The Master and Fellows shall, as often as they may be required to do so, answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.

41. It shall be lawful for the Master or for any Fellow, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Master and Fellows, and for any Scholar or Exhibitor who may have been deprived of his Scholarship or Exhibition, to appeal against such act, or decision, or sentence to the Lord Chancellor; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to adjudicate on such appeal, and to disallow and annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence as he shall deem just.

42. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, on the complaint of the Master, or of any of the Fellows, to disallow and annul any byelaw or resolution of the Master and Fellows which shall, in his judgment, be repugnant to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being.

43. The Master and Fellows, by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present, may from time to time, at any stated general meeting, subject to the provisions of the section numbered XL in the Queen's Printer's copy of the said Act, repeal or alter any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being, with the consent of the Visitor.

44. In the construction of this Ordinance the words "Lord Chancellor," shall mean the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and shall include the Lord Keeper and Lords Commissioners for the custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being.

45. In the construction of this Ordinance, the Fellowships and Fellows of the College shall be taken to be the Fellowships and Fellows of the foundations mentioned in the existing Statutes of the College, and no others.

46. Whenever the words, "the Fellows," or "the Master and Fellows," are used in this Ordinance, the word "Fellows," shall mean actual Fellows, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to give to Probationers any power which they would not have had if this Ordinance had not been made.

47. This Ordinance shall be without prejudice to the right of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, to visit the College, and to any existing interest, (being such an interest as is intended to be saved by the said Act,) of any member of the College, and shall be construed to speak and take effect as if framed immediately before the approval thereof by Her Majesty in Council.

Given under our Common Seal, this fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Council-Office, Whitehall, May 6, 1857.

WHEREAS the following STATUTE, relating to the Westminster Scholarships at TRINITY COLLEGE, in the University of CAMBRIDGE, made by the major part of the Governing Body of the said College (with the sanction of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster), under the authority of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," and approved by the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of that Act, have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act. And NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council, praying Her Majesty to withhold her approbation of the whole of such Statute, or of any part thereof.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Statute above referred to:

WHEREAS by the Statutes of Trinity College, and by the laws and practice of Westminster School, certain Scholarships in this College have been annually appropriated to Scholars of the said School elected therefrom; it is ordained that henceforth all the Scholarships of this College, when vacant, shall be filled up without preference to the said School. And it is ordained also that there shall be given from the revenues of the College an annual sum of forty pounds to each of such number of Exhibitioners as shall be elected from Westminster School and admitted to the College, not more than three being elected in any one year, for or towards his maintenance, from the time of his commencing his residence in the said College, and during such residence, until, by the Statutes of the University, he shall be qualified to apply for the degree of Bachelor of Arts: Provided always, that he shall have shewn himself apt and fit as other students admitted to the said College, and provided also that no such Exhibition shall be held for more than three years and a quarter. And no such Exhibitioner shall, as such, be disqualified from being elected a Scholar of the said College, and holding the Scholarship together with his Exhibition. And such Exhibitioners shall be entitled to enjoy all the benefactions specially bequeathed to, or settled upon, the Scholars here-
