

and in the case of a Scholarship of Scholars; and every such postponed election shall be held and conducted in the same manner and after the same previous notice as if there had been no postponement.

44. The Principal and Fellows may from time to time regulate as they shall think fit the duties and emoluments of the officers of the College, and the mode of their appointment or election, and may institute such new offices as they shall deem expedient for the better management of the affairs of the College, and the instruction and discipline of its members, and may assign to such new offices such stipends or emoluments as the Principal and Fellows shall think proper: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Visitor, upon the petition of the Principal or any one or more of the Fellows, or of any officer of the College whose stipend or emoluments have been diminished in exercise of the foregoing power, to disallow such regulation or assignment, if he shall think fit: Provided also, that the Principalship shall not be deemed to be an office within the meaning of this clause.

45. The Principal and Fellows shall at the first stated general meeting, or as soon afterwards as conveniently may be, make regulations for the daily performance of Divine Service, according to the Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the College during full Term, and at such other times as they shall think proper, and for attendance on the same, and may vary such regulations from time to time; but such regulations shall be made and varied at stated general meetings only, and shall be subject to the approval of the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, and if disallowed by him shall be void. In the meantime, and until such regulations can be made, the Principal and Fellows may, at any ordinary meeting or meetings, make provisional regulations for the same purposes. The provisions of the existing Statutes relating to Divine Service shall henceforth be void.

46. In case the Principal or any Fellow of the College shall contumaciously cease to conform to the Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland, as by law established, such contumacious ceasing to conform shall be a cause for depriving the Principal of his Principalship, and any such Fellow of his Fellowship.

47. The oaths prescribed by the existing Statutes shall not hereafter be taken. But every person elected or admitted to any place or office, on election or admission to which an oath is now required, shall, at the time of his election or admission, take an oath or make a declaration, as the Principal and Fellows shall by resolution determine, to the effect that he will faithfully perform the duties of such place or office, and obey the Statutes and Byelaws of the College in force for the time being, so far as they may concern him; and the electors to any place or office before election to which an oath is now required, (not being an annual office,) shall, before electing, take an oath or make a declaration, as the Principal and Fellows shall by resolution determine, to the effect that they will elect the person best qualified in their judgment for such place or office.

48. There shall be two stated general meetings at least of the Principal and Fellows in every year, on such days as the Principal and Fellows shall appoint. Any stated general meeting may be adjourned by resolution of the meeting to a day to be specified in the resolution. The vote of the Principal shall be counted as two votes at all College meetings, and in the election, admission, and deprivation of Fellows, and the election and deprivation of Scholars. Subject to the foregoing provision, and except in cases in which this concurrence of any specified proportion of the Principal and Fellows, or the consent of the Principal is hereby made requisite, every question arising at any College meeting shall be determined by a majority of the votes of those present. Whenever the votes shall be equal, the Principal shall have an additional casting vote. Any Statute, rule, or usage of the College which prohibits or restrains, expressly or by implication, any person present at any College meeting from bringing forward thereat any question which he may think proper, or from having such question put to the vote, shall, so far as regards such prohibition or restraint, be henceforth void; Provided, that the Principal and Fellows may make from time to time such rules for regulating the proceedings at College meetings, and for determining what business shall be transacted thereat, and for fixing (if they shall think fit) the notice to be given before bringing forward any question, as they shall deem expedient.

49. The power which is given by the existing Statutes to the Vice-Principal to act in place of the Principal, and the power of any officer of the College who may hereafter be authorized by any Statute or Byelaw to act in place of the Principal, shall be deemed to extend to all the acts which the Principal is hereby authorized or directed to do, except the giving consent to any commutation, regulation, or diminution of the Principal's emoluments.

50. The particular provisions of the existing Statutes respecting the subjects and hours of study and instruction within the College, the disputations and other exercises to be performed by its members, and their attendance in the schools and at the exercises of the University; and respecting the devotions, dress, conversation, recreations, and other personal habits of the members of the College, and the conditions of their going beyond the precincts of the College; and respecting the meals of the members of the College, and the mode of conducting the same; and respecting the punishments for offences not being such as require deprivation; and respecting the use of the Common Hall; and respecting the times of opening and closing the gates and doors of the College; and respecting the admission of strangers into the precincts of the College; and respecting the reading of the Statutes; and respecting the service of the College, and the number, duties, and payment of the servants of the same, shall be henceforth void. The Principal and Fellows shall from time to time make such regulations as they may deem necessary or desirable for promoting the main objects which the aforesaid particular provisions, or any of them, are respectively intended to effect; and may enforce such regulations by such penalties as they shall think fit, subject to such right of appeal to the Visitor on the part of any person who may deem himself aggrieved thereby, as is hereinafter provided.

51. If in any case it shall appear to the Visitor that by reason of any change in the value of money any specific sum fixed by this Ordinance, or which may be hereinafter fixed in exercise of any power given by this Ordinance, has become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the general interests of the College, it shall be lawful for the Visitor from time to time, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, to direct that such annual sum shall be increased or diminished, as he shall think fit, and the increased or diminished sum shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sum originally fixed as aforesaid.
