In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act passed in the session held in the 19th and 20th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of settled Estates," and in the Matter of a piece of land, situate at Rhodeswell, in the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, and county of Middlesex, with a messuage and buildings thereon, forming part of the estates settled by the wills of Archdall Harris and John Harris, proposed to be sold.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Elizabeth Harris, of Great Smith-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Widow, on the 1st July, 1857, presented a petition in these matters to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before the Vice Chancellor Sir William Page Wood), praying—

1.—That the contract for the sale of the four twelfth shares of the said piece of land, with the buildings thereon, and the appurtenances, now vested in John Willis and Léonie Clara Raffanel, subject to the life interest of the petitioner, might be approved and carried into effect, under the direction of the Court, and that all proper directions might be given for that purpose, and in particular that the petitioner and the said John Willis and Léonie Clara Raffanel, might be appointed to execute such deed of conveyance, as might be necessary for effecting the sale of the last-mentioned four twelfth shares.

2.—That William Jones, John Willis, and Léonie Clara Raffanel in the said petition named, might be appointed trustees, to receive the sum of £400, in the said petition mentioned, and that the said William Jones, John Willis, and Léonie Clara Raffanel, might be directed to invest the same in the purchase in their names, of Three per cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, and to pay to the petitioner, the dividends to accrue on such Bank Annuities during her lifetime, and from and after her death, to transfer such Bank Annuities and the dividends to accrue thereon after the death of the petitioner, to the trustees or trustee for the time being, of Emily Susan Graham Raffanel or that his Lordship will make such further or other Order as to his Lordship shall seem meet. And notice is hereby further given, that the petitioner may be served with any Order of the Court, or notice relating to the said application, at the office of Messrs. Jones and Blaxland, No. 7, Crosby-square, in the city of London.—Dated this 7th day of July, 1857.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of an Act made and passed in the session began in the nineteenth and continued in the twentieth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intitled "An Act to facilitate leases and sales of settled estates," and in the Matter of the estates situate in the township of Castleton, in the parish, and near the town, of Rochdale, in the county palatine of Lancaster, settled by the will of Thomas Wilson Hadwen, of Dean House, in Lowerby, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, Silk Spinner, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application will be made to the High Court of Chancery, before his Honour the Master of the Rolls, under the authority of the above-mentioned Act, that general powers of leasing the property mentioned in the heading of this notice, conformably with the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, for such long terms of years as are customary in the district wherein the said estates are situated, may be vested in the existing trustees of the settlement effected by the will of the said testator, subject to such conditions as the said Court may see fit to impose. And notice is hereby also given, that the names, addresses, and descriptions of the petitioners in this matter, are John Wilson Hadwen, of Dean House aforesaid, Cotton Spinner, Mary Emily, the wife of the Reverend Thomas Barge Jenkinson, of Roulston Vicarage, in the county of Lincoln, Clerk, by the said John Wilson Hadwen, her brother and next friend, Joshua Lovell Hadwen, of Dean House aforesaid, Cotton Spinner, Ellen Hadwen and Eliza Anne Hadwen, both of Dean House aforesaid, spinsters, infants under the age of twenty-one years, by Margaret Hadwen, of Dean House aforesaid, widow, their mother and next friend and the guardian of the said infants, appointed by the will of the above-named Thomas Wilson Hadwen and Margaret Emily Jenkinson, of Roulston Vicarage aforesaid, the daughter of the said Thomas Barge Jenkinson and Mary Emily, his wife, by the said Thomas Barge Jenkinson, her father and next friend; and that Messrs. Hawkins, Bloxan, and Hawkins, are the Solicitors of the petitioners in the matter of the said petition, and their office No. 2, New Boswell-court, near Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, is the place where the said petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court or notice relating to the subject of the said petition.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Act of Parliament of the 19th and 20th years of Her present Majesty, chapter 120, intitled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of settled Estates," and in the Matter of the undivided moiety of the leasehold estate, known as Broadwood's Pianoforte Manufactory, situated in the Horseferry-road, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, settled by the will of James Shudi Broadwood, Esq., deceased.

PURSUANT to the said Act and to the general orders of the Court, and to an Order, dated the 6th day of July, 1857, made by the Vice Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, notice is hereby given, that the Reverend John Broadwood, of Lyne, in the parish of Newdegate, in the county of Surrey, Clerk, on the 2nd day of July, 1857, presented a petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before the Vice Chancellor Sir William Page Wood), praying that an underlease of the hereditaments comprised in the indenture of assignment of the 29th day of January, 1836, in the said petition stated (being the leasehold estate mentioned in the title of the said petition), at the rent, for the term, and subject to the covenants, conditions, and stipulations, mentioned in the articles of agreement of the 27th day of June, 1857, in the said petition stated, might so far as related to the moiety of the said hereditaments, bequeathed and settled by the will of the said testator, James Shudi Broadwood, be authorised by the order of the Court and that the underlease of the said hereditaments to be granted in pursuance of such Order, might be approved of by the Court, and that Thomas Broadwood the elder and Alfred Lyall, in the said petition named, might be authorised to execute the same, and that his lordship would make such further or other Order in the pre-
