AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications:

BRISTOL, ST. PHILIP AND ST. JACOB.—Forthwith wholly in the burial-ground of Thrisslestreet Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob, Bristol.

CHETWYND, SALOP.—Wholly in the parish church and in the churchyard, except in that part of it which is west of the church, and so far as is compatible with the observance of the regulations for new burial grounds.

ROCHDALE AND HALIFAX.—On and after the first October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the Old Churchyard of Todmorden (except in walled graves existing on the twelfth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in which each coffin shall be imbedded in charcoal, and separately entombed in an airtight manner); and in the Independent and Independent Inghamite Burial-grounds, all in the town of Todmorden, and parish of Rochdale, and in the Unitarian and Quakers Burial-grounds in Todmorden, and parish of Halifax, except so far as is compatible with the observance of the regulations for new burial grounds.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of August next;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said thirty-first day of August.
