

and so from time to time, as circumstance may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth of June last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixth of August instant; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, with the following modifications, from and after the seventh of September next (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

KINGSWINFORD, STAFFORDSHIRE.—Wholly in the churchyard of Brierley-hill; and in the Wesleyan and Primitive Methodist Burial-grounds, in Brierley-hill, within three yards of any building; and also in the rest of the said burial-grounds, except in vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in graves which are free from water and from remains, no coffin to be placed within a foot of any other coffin, or less than four feet below the surface of the ground.

NEWARK-UPON-TRENT.—In the burial-grounds of the Independent and the Jehovah Jireh Chapels.

MELBOURNE, DERBYSHIRE.—In the parish church; and from and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the churchyard, in the Friends' Burial-ground, in the New Jerusalem Chapel Burial-ground, and (with the exception of the now existing reserved grave spaces in which the only bodies interred shall be those of the husbands and wives of persons buried in the adjoining graves) in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground,

SELBY.—In the parish church; and from and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the churchyard, with the exception of family vaults and brick graves existing on the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which are free from water and can be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been already buried in, and it is also ordered that each coffin be embedded in charcoal and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and that the only bodies interred be those of the husbands, wives, parents, unmarried children, brothers, and sisters of those already interred therein.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:
