

and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Friday the sixth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday the sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorize the embodying of "the Militia," after reciting that whereas the sudden demand for the services in India of a large body of Her Majesty's regular forces, may render it expedient to draw out and embody the militia or some part of the militia of the United Kingdom; it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, respectively, at any time after the passing of this Act, and before the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to cause all or any part of the respective militias in England, Scotland, and Ireland, to be drawn out and embodied in like manner as in the respective cases in which such militia are now by law authorized to be drawn out and embodied.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct that the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or proportion of them, or any of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby order and direct the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or portion of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-six, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, section eleven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-six, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, section twenty, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, section eleven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the dean and canons of the cathedral church of Canterbury.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the annual incomes of the dean and canons of the said cathedral church are subject to much fluctuation and uncertainty, and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry and consideration, that the following arrangement should be adopted for regulating such incomes:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of the cathedral church of Canterbury, in this present and every future year so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said cathedral church, a correct account in writing, in such form and verified in such manner as we shall from time to time direct, showing every sum of money, from whatsoever source arising, which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to the dean and each canon in respect of the deanery, and of each canony of the said cathedral church for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid, and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount which may have so become due and payable to any such dean shall exceed the sum of two thousand pounds, or to any such canon the sum of one thousand pounds, then and in every such case the amount of the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said treasurer to our credit at the Bank of England, and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable in the case of any such dean shall be less than the sum of two thousand pounds, or in the case of any such canon less than the sum of one thousand pounds, then and in every such case there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency; and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by the same dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates under the provisions of the said Acts.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding, upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canony, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canons so newly appointed
