

days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post-office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

Every packet of printed newspapers or other printed papers shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover, or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no word or communication printed on the contents of any such packet after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such contents or the cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vender, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof.

No packet of printed newspapers or other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any letter or communication, nor any inclosure other than printed newspapers or other printed papers.

Every newspaper and packet of printed newspapers or other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

17. If any newspaper or packet of printed newspapers or other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, be sent by the post otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under the 16th clause of this Warrant, the same shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such newspaper or packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit, not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such newspaper or packet as an unpaid letter.

18. The rates of postage chargeable on letters, printed newspapers, and other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, and the freedom from postage hereby granted shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

19. The respective letters, newspapers, and packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

20. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

21. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October next.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 26.) ENGLAND.—WEST COAST.

Rocks in Broad Sound.

SEVERAL rocks having been lately discovered in the vicinity of Skokham Island and Broad Sound, near Milford Haven, during the progress of the Admiralty Survey under Commander Alldridge, R.N., the following notice is published for the benefit of the mariner:—

1. A rock awash lies to the northward of the east end of Skokham Island, 200 yards N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. from the Stack.

2. A rock with 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms on it, lies in the same direction from the Stack, at 400 yards off.

3. Two other rocks, with 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, exist at 533 yards N.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. of the Stack. All these rocks are directly in the track of vessels passing through the Sound to or from Milford Haven.

4. To the southward of Skokham Stack, there are also rocks with 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms, at 820 yards S.S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. from the Stack.

5. To the westward of Skokham Island, rocks have been found in the race known as the Wild Goose Race, with 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 5 fathoms, at 1,300 yards N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. from the west end of Skokham Island, and the west end of Skomer Island, bearing N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.

6. To the northward of Skokham Island, there are rocks with from 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ fathoms to 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms on them, which lie midway between, and in a line from, the west end of Skokham Island, and the Mewstone of Skomer Island, or 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ mile N.W. by N. from Skokham Stack.
