A PROCLAMATION,

For a Day of Solemn Fast, Humiliation, and Prayer.

VICTORIA R.

WE, taking into Our most serious consideration the grievous mutiny and disturbances which have broken out in India, and putting Our trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our efforts for the restoration of lawful authority in that country, have resolved, and do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a Public Day of Solemn Fast, Humiliation, and Prayer be observed throughout those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the seventh day of October next, that so both We and Our people may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of Our sins, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our arms for the Restoration of Tranquillity: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said day be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the favour of Almighty God: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this occasion, to be Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this twenty-fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and in the twenty-first year of Our reign.
