Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1857.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of November, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Bishop of Exeter for a certain estate belonging to his see.

"Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might from time to time be made with the consent, in writing, under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting, in any case, any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas, the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter is seized in right of his see of the hereditaments and premises particularly described in the Schedule hereto annexed, subject, except as to part of the same, to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seven, granted for three lives, of which only two survive, and are now aged, respectively, seventy-two years, and fifty-eight years, or thereabouts, subject to an annual reserved rent of two pounds and sixteen shillings, and a heriot or seven pounds in lieu thereof, as therein particularly mentioned.

"And whereas the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, is now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease, by the insertion therein of an additional life, but it is not expedient that such renewal should be granted:

"And whereas, after full enquiry and calculation, we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the sum of one thousand and seventy-five pounds, and the sums which, after fully stating the existing lease, the bishop and his successors might have expected to have derived from the before-mentioned annual reserved rent and heriot, and from future fines upon renewals, as equivalent to an annuity of thirty pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls; and we are of opinion, that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said hereditaments and premises should be transferred from the said see of Exeter to us; and that a money payment to the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, should forthwith be substituted for his interest in the same.

"And whereas the said bishop has consented to accept a money payment accordingly; and that the same shall be the sum of one thousand and seventy-five pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, together with an annual payment of thirty pounds to himself and to his successors, in respect of the proceeds which he and they might have expected to have received from future renewals and from the reserved rent and heriot hereinbefore mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit by renewal of the said lease or otherwise in respect of the said hereditaments and premises.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose (with the consent of the said Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, testified by his having signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal,) that, from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the hereditaments and premises particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereto annexed (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), and all the right, title, estate and interest therein of the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and of his successors, Bishops of Exeter, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Exeter, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, as part consideration for the transfer to us of such hereditaments and premises as aforesaid, there shall, at the same time, be paid by us to the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the aforesaid sum of one thousand and seventy-five pounds, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, and to his successors in the said see, the said annual sum of thirty pounds by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made at the expiration of six months from the date of such Order being gazetted as aforesaid.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

“ All that message and tenement, with all gardens, orchards, meadows, pastures, common of pasture, heath, furze, or brakes, with all its appurtenances in Lawhitton, in the county of Cornwall, to wit, the fourth part of all the demesne lands and barton of Lawhitton aforesaid, and the fourth part of the rents, reversions and profits of days work of all the customary tenants of the manor of Lawhitton aforesaid, which fourth part message and tenement, and all and singular the aforesaid premises, were formerly held and enjoyed by one Martha Grant, deceased, then by John Sleech, deceased, or his undertenants or assigns, afterwards by Maria Phillippa Brereton, deceased, her undertenants or assigns, and late of John Wise, as tenant thereof.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Harlow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester.

“ Whereas the church of the district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow, in the above mentioned county and diocese, is in the patronage of the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Harlow.

“ And whereas by two instruments, bearing date respectively the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the eleventh day of September, in the same year, certain rent charges or annual or other sums of money in lieu or commutation of tithes, amounting together to one hundred and one pounds, two shillings, and eight pence per annum, arising and becoming due or payable from, out of, or in respect of certain farms, lands, and hereditaments situate and being in the parish of South Bemfleet, in the said county of Essex, have been granted and conveyed by John Watlington Perry Watlington, of Moor Hall, in the last-named county, Esquire, and Richard Perry, of No. 18, Chester-terrace, Hyde-park, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, to be applied and disposed of for the perpetual augmentation of the maintenance of the curate or incumbent of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow.

“ And whereas such grant and conveyance as aforesaid was made upon the understanding and faith that we, the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the vicar of Harlow, should submit to your Majesty in Council the recommendation with respect to the patronage of the said district chapelry which is hereinafter accordingly made.

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Rochester, and of the Reverend Charles Miller, as such vicar of Harlow as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Harlow, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Watlington Perry Watlington, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.
