

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Westmoreland, in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the average net annual income of the said Archdeaconry of Westmoreland does not exceed the sum of four pounds.

"And whereas under and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the twenty-fifth day of the same month, the canonry in the cathedral church of Carlisle, which shall next become vacant, will immediately upon the vacancy thereof become and be annexed and united to the Archdeaconry of Carlisle.

"Now, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that until the vacancy of a canonry in the said cathedral church of Carlisle, which shall happen next after the annexation of a canonry in the said church to the Archdeaconry of Carlisle, under the provisions of the before-named Order of your Majesty in Council, there shall be paid by us out of the common fund, in the said Act mentioned, to the Archdeacon of Westmoreland, for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred and ninety-six pounds, on the first day of January, in every year; and that every such payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate from the Bishop of Carlisle, that the Archdeacon claiming the same has duly resided within the diocese of Carlisle, according to the provisions of the said Act, or has been legally exempt from such residence.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if a vacancy in the said archdeaconry shall occur on any other day than the first day of January, the grant hereby recommended to be made payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the Archdeacon making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the Archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the "Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter "seventy-seven," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for providing a permanent residence for the Bishop of Llandaff.

"Whereas in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the mansion-house and premises situate at Llandaff, in the county of Glamorgan, formerly called or known as Llandaff Court, but now called Bishop's Court, together with certain lands adjacent thereto, were purchased by us in order to the appropriation of such house and premises, as a permanent episcopal residence for the Bishop of Llandaff for the time being, and the said house and premises have from time to time, when they were so acquired by us as aforesaid, been occupied by the Right Reverend Alfred Bishop of Llandaff, as his episcopal residence, but the same have not yet been legally annexed to the See of Llandaff.

"And whereas, we are also seized of certain other lands and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Llandaff aforesaid, the possession of a portion whereof, is from its position, adjacent to the premises before mentioned, of great importance to the convenient occupation of the said house.

"Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the mansion-house and premises, lands and hereditaments, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such Order, be permanently annexed to the see of Llandaff, and shall become and be the house of residence of the bishop of such see and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."
