WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Salop, in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas, by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month, it was provided, inter alia, that there should be paid by us out of the common fund in the herein named Act mentioned to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Salop for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas the amount of the said grant of one hundred and fifty pounds was fixed on the assumption that the average annual income of the said Archdeaconry, arising from fees and other sources, amounted to fifty pounds, and it has been made to appear to us that such average annual income does not exceed the sum of thirty pounds.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, which, under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, is now payable by us to the holder of the said Archdeaconry of Salop, in the diocese of Hereford, for the time being, shall be increased to one hundred and seventy pounds, subject nevertheless to the same conditions as are specified in the said order with respect to the payment of the said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said Archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.
