

for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Gaia Minor, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of February, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Carnmenellis, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, and for augmenting the income of the perpetual curate of the said new parish.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the district of Carnmenellis was constituted out of the parish [of Wendron otherwise Saint Wendron, in the said county of Cornwall, and such district has since become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the provisions of the secondly mentioned Act.

"And whereas no special assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister of the said district, or so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid of the perpetual curate thereof, was made by the said Order; and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the last-mentioned Act.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand one hundred and thirty-six pounds seven shilling and three pence New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our names in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by Maria Charlotte Broadley, of Carnmenellis aforesaid, widow, upon the understanding that the arrangements hereinafter mentioned should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Carnmenellis, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day upon which such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, be assigned to and absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Maria Charlotte Broadley, her heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of the transfer to us of the said sum of one thousand one hundred and thirty-six pounds seven shillings and threepence New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the perpetual curate for the time being of the said new parish of Carnmenellis an annual sum of thirty-four pounds, which shall be receivable by him by half-yearly payments, with and as an augmentation of the annual sum now payable to him by us under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
