

During the night, however, some of the boats were removed to the opposite bank, and one or two shifted up river, by a small party of fugitives which was said had occupied the jungle into which guns could not penetrate, and not thinking it prudent to detach, I determined to return to Bittoor. On arrival abreast the village of Kurruchpore, situated half the way to Bittoor in a jungle a quarter of a mile from the road, and almost entirely owned by mutineers, sepoy, many of whom had only a few days previously returned from Delhi. I halted the column, and detached a company to destroy any rebel sepoy who might be found there. Some escaped upon the approach of this party, but those overtaken were shot down, and the houses of all that were pointed out by Captain Bruce destroyed.

Two or three regular cavalry horses being taken, the force then rested at Bittoor for the night, returning to Cawnpore yesterday morning at 8 o'clock.

Herewith I inclose returns of killed and wounded, also returns of advance stores captured from the rebels in the village of Sheorajpore.

I take this opportunity of recommending to the notice of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, Major Barnston, Her Majesty's 90th Light Infantry, who led on his men with much steadiness and gallantry. To Captain Bruce, 5th Punjab Cavalry, and Captain Impey, Executive Engineer (who volunteered his services), I am very much indebted for their valuable assistance. To Captain Down, 1st Madras Fusiliers, my Acting Brigade Major, and Lieutenant Graham, — Regiment Native Infantry, my acting Aide-de-Camp, my thanks are also due.

I have, &c.,
N. WILSON, Colonel,
Commanding Cawnpore.

The Officer Commanding the Shekhawattee Battalion, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Presidency Division.

Sir, Camp, Poorolea, November 13, 1857.
I HAVE much pleasure in reporting for the information of the Major-General commanding the Presidency Division, that the wing of the Shekhawattee Battalion under my command having successfully accomplished all that was required of them by Government in Maunbhoom, the Commissioner of Burdwan (now present in camp) will report the same for the satisfaction of his Lordship in Council, and of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

Mr. E. Lushington informs me that our services will now not be needed here, and in the event of my not receiving immediate further orders for any other duty, I shall, with the concurrence and advice of the officiating Commissioner, retrace my steps towards Midnapore via Bancoorah, as soon as our services are finally dispensed with at Poorolea.

The great scarcity of atta and other food for the troops obtainable at Poorolea, renders a move advisable, the supplies from Calcutta not having as yet reached us.

I am to make over the Chief of Packets (Neelmoney Sing), who is a prisoner under my charge at present), to the civil and political officer (Captain Davies).

The native officers and sepoy, I am proud and happy to add, have most zealously and cheerfully undergone the fatigue and privations, for they were on half rations of atta for many days, and for some days without any, and have given proofs, by their alacrity in surrounding the Chief's camp, and his four hundred followers, and taking him a prisoner, and subsequently proceeding against the formidable stronghold at Kasheepore, which surrendered to the troops, capturing four pieces of artillery, a large number of arms and munitions of war, together with treasure, all which had been buried and hid under rubbish and earth, of their earnest loyalty.

The fort, I have delivered over to Mr. Lushington, the officiating Commissioner, and it is safely occupied by the police of this district.

I must now hope that these favourable results
