THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Acting Consul at Marseilles, reporting that a malignant fever had broken out at Bengazi, and that in consequence all vessels arriving from that port will have to undergo a quarantine at Marseilles of ten days, and that vessels arriving at that port from Alexandria and Tripoli, will only be admitted to free pratique, provided they have been 8 or 10 days on their passage, and according as they have a medical man on board or not.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 16, 1858.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, an extract from the Moniteur, of which the following is a translation :

"The Department of Marine and Colonies had directed, with the view of encouraging the cultivation of long stapled Cotton in the Colonies, the purchase from planters of cotton of this description in 1857 at a remunerative price.

"In execution of this measure, an agent of the local government has collected and assorted at Guadaloupe eighty bales of long stapled blanc couronné indigène from Siam, and from the Sea Island of the Isle of Edisto.

"These cottons have arrived at Havre, where they have been officially classified by a broker,
