Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, chapter seventy-seven; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of certain estates belonging to the Bishop of Lincoln in right of his see, and us respectively.

"Whereas it was by the secondly and thirdly recited Acts enacted that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us and an Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, or of the said first recited Act, any arrangements might from time to time be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any bishop, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to the see of such bishop, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln is seized in right of his see of certain manors, lands, hereditaments, and premises, situate in the county of Huntingdon, the whole or the greater part of which are particularly described in the first schedule hereunto annexed.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the eleventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, made between Henry Rogers the elder, therein described, of the first part; Henry Rogers the younger, therein also described, of the second part; the Reverend Thomas Best, therein also described, of the third part; and us, the said Commissioners, of the fourth part; the manor, lands, and hereditaments known as the Lusby Estate, situate in the several parishes of Lusby, Hagworthingham, and Hareby, in the county of Lincoln, and more particularly described in the first part of the second schedule hereto annexed, became vested in us in fee simple in possession, subject to the provisions of the said Acts.

"And whereas, under and by virtue of the said secondly recited Act, section fifty-one, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and among them lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Saint Margaret with Saint Peter in the East, in the city of Lincoln, particularly described in the second part of the said second schedule, formerly belonging to the Prebend of Haydor-cum-Walton, in the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, became vested, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred in or about the month of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, by the appointment of the Very Reverend Thomas Turton, Doctor in Divinity, the then Dean of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough and Prebendary of the said Prebend, to the Deanery of the Collegiate Church of Westminster.

"And whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, made between Alexander Cotton and James Bramston Staine, therein respectively described, of the first part; John Archer Houbton, therein described, of the second part; and us the said Commissioners, of the third part; the lands, tenements, and hereditaments lastly above referred to, were granted, conveyed, and surrendered unto and to the use of us the said Commissioners, our successors, and assigns, for the residue of the term of the lives and the life of the survivor thereof, named in a certain indenture of lease, dated the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, made between the Reverend Luke Heslop, therein described as the then Prebendary of the said Prebend of Haydor-cum-Walton aforesaid, of the first part; Sir James Graham, Baronet, Thomas Gardiner Bramston and Benjamin Handley, therein respectively described, of the second part; John Pearson, therein described, of the third part; and Charles Smith, therein described, of the fourth part; and for all other the estate, term, and interest granted by the same indenture.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the lands and hereditaments in the county of Huntingdon so belonging to the Bishoprick of Lincoln as aforesaid should be exchanged for the aforesaid manor, lands, and hereditaments known as the Lusby Estate, and also for the other premises described as aforesaid in the second part of the second schedule hereto annexed, the same being more convenient for the endowment of the bishoprick of Lincoln.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose (with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, testified by his having signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) that from and after the day of the due publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the manors, lands, hereditaments, and premises referred to or set forth in the first schedule hereto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein of the said bishop and his successors, Bishops of Lincoln, shall be and become conveyed and transferred from the said bishop and his successors, and shall be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said hereinbefore recited Acts; and that in exchange for the same the manor, lands, hereditaments, and premises, known as the Lusby Estate, and particularly described and set forth in the first part of the said second schedule hereto, and the farm, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the said second part of the same schedule, with their respective appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, shall be and become absolutely vested in the bishop and his successors for ever in right of the said see of Lincoln in as full and ample a manner as if such last-mentioned estates had formed part of the ancient possessions of the same see.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matter aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The FIRST SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All that nether part of the meadow ground commonly called the Nether Vine-yard, with the appurtenances, containing, by estimation, three acres, little more or less, heretofore in the tenure or occupation of John Green, late of Buckden aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, his heirs, assigns or undertenants, lying on the back side of the Parsonage of Buckden, commonly called the Barn-yard, in the parish of Buckden, in the county of Huntingdon, which said piece or parcel of meadow ground is now in the tenure or occupation of John Hipwell, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease thereof, dated the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, granted by George, then Bishop of Lincoln, for the term of three lives.

"Also all that the Prebend or Parsonage of Buckden, with the rights, members and appurtenances thereunto belonging or appertaining; and also all those several allotments, pieces or parcels of land, which were allotted and awarded to the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors, Prebendaries of Buckden, and his and their lessee in lieu of their glebe lands, rights of common and tithes within the parish of Buckden aforesaid, in and by the award of the Commissioners appointed under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Buckden, in the county of Huntingdon," particularly mentioned and described in the indenture of lease hereinafter mentioned or referred to, which said hereditaments with the appurtenances are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of John Linton, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by a virtue of a lease thereof dated the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, granted by John, then Bishop of Lincoln, for the term of three lives.

"And also all those three water mills or corn mills, with a fulling mill, as they are now builded, edified, and set up, within the said parish and lordship of Buckden, with the appurtenances, all which said hereditaments are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of Sir Thomas Gery Cullum, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease, dated the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, granted by John, then Bishop of Lincoln, for the term of three lives.

"And also all that messuage or tenement, with the appurtenances; and also all those several closes or fields of arable land or pasture ground called Great Harthy's, or Bishop's Harthy, containing together, by estimation, one moiety of the ground, called or known by the name or names of Harthy, otherwise the Hearty, in the parish of Brampton, in the county of Huntingdon aforesaid, all which said hereditaments and premises are situate, lying and being in the said parish of Brampton, and are now (with certain exceptions) in the tenure or occupation of George Hodgson, his executors, administrators, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease dated the twenty-ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, granted by John, then Bishop of Lincoln, for a term of twenty-one years from the making thereof.

"And also all that the rectorial farm house, yards, barns, stable, garden, outbuildings, home-close, and appurtenances, containing together, three acres one rood and twenty-nine perches, situate in Buckden aforesaid, bounded on the north by the Town-street, on the east by premises belonging to Thomas Usher, and freehold hereditaments purchased by Henry Waller, of Cornelius Swan Scarbrow, on the south by premises late belonging to John Hipwell, and on the west by the Vicarage house and homestead; and also all that allotment or plot of land or ground lying in Millfield, in Buckden aforesaid, containing fifty-two acres, and thirty-two perches, exclusive of the road over the same, bounded on part of the north and part of the east by an allotment to the Bishop of Lincoln, on the south-east further part of the east, and part of the south, by an allotment to the trustees of Burberry's Charity, on further part of the south and remaining part of the east, by the private road, marked Number 2 in the map of the Inclosure Commissioners, on the remaining part of the south by an allotment to the Bishop of Lincoln, and on the north-west by the fourth public drain, which said allotment or plot of land was, on the inclosure of the said parish of Buckden, allotted and awarded to the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, Prebendary of the said prebend of Buckden, and his lessee, together with other lands and hereditaments, in lieu of their glebe lands, rights of common, and tithes within the said parish, which said hereditaments, with the appurtenances (with certain exceptions), are now in the tenure or occupation of Henry Waller, his heirs, assigns, or undertenants, by virtue of a lease, dated the fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, granted by John, then Bishop of Lincoln, for the term of three lives.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Purbrook, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, testified, by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those parts of the said parish of Farlington, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which parts together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Purbrook.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that the said fees so to be received as aforesaid, shall be reserved for and paid to the Reverend Edward Tew Richards, incumbent of the said parish of Farlington, so long as he shall remain such incumbent.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has Reference.

"All that isolated part of the parish of Farlington, in the county of Southampton, and Diocese of Winchester, which is known as Shallots; and also all that other part of the same parish which is situate to the north of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the highroad leading from Southwick to Havant, and to the west of an imaginary line extending from the said road along the middle of Crookhorn-lane, to a road called Stakes-road, and extending thence in a westerly direction along the middle of such last-named road, to a point opposite to the middle of a certain private road which leads from the entrance lodge of Purbrook-park, through Day's London Copse, to the London and Portsmouth turnpike-road, and extending thence along the middle of such private road to the last-mentioned turnpike-road, and extending thence in the same straight line across the same turnpike-road to the boundary between the said parish of Farlington, and the parish of Southwick, in the said county and diocese."

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London, which lies to the south and east of an imaginary line, commencing at a point (marked A on the map or plan hereunto annexed) on the boundary between the said new parish, and the parish of Fulham, where the Kensington-canal joins the canal basin, and extending thence eastward, in a straight line to the middle of the western end of Pembroke-road, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of such last named road, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a new road, known as Warwick-gardens-road, and extending thence north-westward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a sewer or water-course, flowing from such last-named road, to the northern end of the road forming the western side of Pembroke-square, and extending thence northward, along the middle of the road leading to, and forming the eastern side of Edwardes-square, to the middle of the high road from London to Hammersmith, and extending thence eastward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road, to the boundary between the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, and the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the same county and diocese: And also all that part of the portion of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, within which the Vicar of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which lies to the south and west of an imaginary line commencing in the middle of the said high road, leading from Hammersmith to London, on the boundary between the said last named parish and the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of a street called Allen-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last mentioned street as far as the middle of a road or street known as Scarsdale-villas, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last mentioned road or street to the middle of a street called, or intended to be called, Devonshire-terrace, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last mentioned street, and along the middle of a pathway called Barrow's-walk, to the boundary between the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, and the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day July, 1858.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the chapelry district of Haverthwaite, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas the church of the said chapelry district of Haverthwaite is in the patronage of the Incumbent for the time being of the parish of Colton, in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas the provision for the Incumbent of the said chapelry district of Haverthwaite is of small amount, and a sum of one thousand pounds has been contributed and paid to us, upon the understanding that the arrangements hereinafter mentioned relating to the said chapelry district should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle and of the Reverend Samuel Thomas Clarke, Incumbent of the said parish of Colton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and in consideration of the said sum of one thousand pounds so paid to us as aforesaid, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said chapelry district of Haverthwaite, an annual sum of thirty-one pounds, which shall be receivable by him by half-yearly payments with and as an augmentation of the annual sum now payable to him by us, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the Incumbent of the said chapelry district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed to such Incumbent and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that in consideration of the payment of the said sum of one thousand pounds, as aforesaid, the right of patronage of the said Chapelry District of Havertwaite, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, and to the church thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, become and be vested in, and shall, and may, from time to time, be exercised alternately by the said Henry Montagu, Bishop of Carlisle, and his successors, Bishops of Carlisle, and the said Samuel Thomas Clarke, Incumbent of the said parish of Colton, and his successors, incumbents of the same parish, and that the first nomination which shall arise after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be exercised by the said Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Colton.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Carlisle.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis ;" it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification ; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require ; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered ; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation, shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish ;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representations, has made two representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fifth of June last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the seventeenth of July last ; and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.:

In All Saints' Churchyard, in Christ Churchyard, in Holy Trinity Churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Ebenezer and Mares Green Independent Chapels, and of the Wesleyan Chapel, all in WEST BROMWICH, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the parish churchyard, in the burial-grounds of the Baptist Chapel, Townfields, of the Lower Baptist Chapel, and of the Independent Chapel, and in the old burial-ground of the General Baptist Chapel, all in the parish of CHESHAM, Bucks, from the twenty-fourth of June to the twenty-ninth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the churchyard of the parish of EGHAM, Surrey, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the parish churchyard of GLOSSOP, in the Independent Chapel Burial-ground, in the township of Whitfield, and in the Wesleyan Chapel Burial-ground, in the township of Hadfield, both in Glossop, from the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard of HAVERFORDWEST, from the first of July to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

In the parish churchyard, and in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground, HUSBAND'S BOSWORTH, from the first of August to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight;

Wm. L. Bathurst.

In Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the first of September to the 31st of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued, as therein mentioned, in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Baptist and Independent Chapels, LYMINGTON, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that permission be granted to use now existing vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard and burial-grounds, in the parish of Lymington, upon the following conditions, viz.: that no interment take place within three yards of any dwelling-house or public institution; that each grave, when required, be opened without the disturbance of soil that has been already buried in; that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in an airtight manner; and that the only bodies interred be those of the husband, wife, unmarried children, brothers and sisters of persons already buried therein.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of St. Gregory, SUDBURY, in Suffolk, from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, which period has since been extended in respect of part of such churchyard, to the first of June last; and whereas by an Order of the fifth of that month, burials were permitted in the said churchyard, subject to certain provisions and exceptions, and it seems fit that such Orders be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said churchyard of St. Gregory, Sudbury, be closed on and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves; and it is further ordered that the said family vaults and brick graves be used on condition that they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in an airtight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the fifth day of June last, it was ordered that powers be vested in the town council of the city of Hereford, for providing requisite places of burial, under the provisions of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the "metropolis," or of any other Act of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the parishes of All Saints, Saint Peter, Saint Owen, Saint Nicholas, and Saint John the Baptist, in the said city; and it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order be varied as hereinafter directed.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parish of All Saints, in the said city of Hereford, be exempted from the operation of the aforesaid Order in Council of the fifth day of June last, vesting in the town council of Hereford powers for providing places of burial under the provisions of the last above-recited Act.

Ordinance above referred to.

Ordinance framed by the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Statute 17th and 18th Vict. c. 81., in relation to the Exhibitions of the Foundation of the Lady Elizabeth Hastings, within the Queen's College in the University of Oxford.

We, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of St. Mary, Winchester," hereby ordain as follows in relation to the Exhibitions of the Foundation of the Lady Elizabeth Hastings within the Queen's College in the said University.

One Exhibition, in addition to the five now existing Exhibitions, shall be established in the year 1860, and in each of the four years next following, and such five additional Exhibitions shall be thenceforth maintained out of the revenues of the estates and funds out of the said foundation.

One of the five existing Exhibitions shall be filled up in the year 1864, and in every year thereafter.

The annual value of the Exhibitions to be established in the year 1860 and the four years next following, and of the existing Exhibitions in and after the year 1864, shall be not less than seventy-five pounds each, if the revenues of the foundation shall be of sufficient amount, nor more than ninety pounds each; and the Exhibitions shall be respectively tenable for five years from the day of election inclusive, and no longer.

The election to Exhibitions in and after the year 1860 shall be made at Oxford by the Provost and Fellows of Queen's College on a stated day in each year, to be appointed by the Provost and Fellows, after an examination of the candidates in the Greek and Latin classics, elementary divinity according to the principles of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the rudiments of mathematical science, including arithmetic; and the Provost and Fellows shall elect the candidate who, after such examination, shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit and fitness. Every school now or hereafter entitled to send candidates for the Exhibitions of this foundation shall have the liberty of sending one candidate for each election, provided that the Head Master of the school send with the candidates a certificate that he is, in the Head Master's opinion, qualified for election in respect of his attainments and moral character, and is well grounded in the principles of the United Church of England and Ireland, and has been educated in the school for the two years at least last preceding. No person shall be ineligible by reason of his not having entered upon the nineteenth year of his age, or not having been educated for more than two years at his school.

It shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to pay a sum not exceeding five pounds to each or any of the four best unsuccessful candidates, for the purpose of defraying their expenses in attending the examination.

Any Exhibition for which there shall be no candidate of such attainments as to make it probable, in the judgment of the Provost and Fellows, that he will be qualified to pass with credit during the tenure of his Exhibition all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, shall be thrown open for that turn to general competition, and the election thereto shall be held on some day not later than the next ensuing stated day of election of scholars of the College. Any Exhibition filled up at an election so postponed, shall be tenable only until the expiration of the period for which it would have been tenable if there had been no postponement.

The Exhibitioners shall be subject to such regulations only, as to study and instruction, as the Provost and Fellows shall determine; provided that such regulations shall always include the study of Divinity, according to the principles of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Every Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, discipline, and attendance on Divine worship as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Provost and Fellows for any misconduct which in their judgment shall merit deprivation, subject to such appeal to the visitor as is provided in Clause 59 of an Ordinance framed by us in relation to the said College, and bearing date the ninth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

The whole revenues of the foundation, whether consisting of rents, or the income of accumulations, or arising from any other source, shall be appliéable to the maintenance of the said Exhibitions and the other purposes aforesaid, and the surplus thereof shall be applied in increasing the number of Exhibitions, or to any other purpose connected with the foundation which the visitor shall approve. The emoluments of vacant Exhibitions accruing during the vacancy thereof shall be applied in the same manner.

If any school now entitled to send candidates shall, in twenty successive elections have no candidate either elected to an Exhibition, or placed amongst the four best unsuccessful candidates, the Provost and Fellows shall appoint a school, in the county in which such school is, to take the place of such school; and the newly appointed school shall have the same advantages, and be subject to the same rules and conditions as the other schools including the provisions of this clause.

No Exhibition shall be tenable with any Scholarship, Exhibition, or Bible Clerkship within the College, in any case in which the aggregate income of the two emoluments shall exceed one hundred and ten pounds per annum.

If in any case it shall appear to the visitor that, by reason of any change in the value of money, any specific sum fixed by this Ordinance has become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the interests of the foundation, it shall be lawful for the visitor, from time to time, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, to direct that such sum shall be increased or diminished as he shall think fit, and the increased or diminished sum shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sum originally fixed as aforesaid.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

ORDINANCE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

ORDINANCE framed by the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Statute 17th and 18th Vict. c. 81., in relation to the Exhibitions or Scholarships of the Foundations of Frederick Tylney, Esquire; Dr. John Thomas, Bishop of Rochester; George Holme, Doctor in Divinity;

Gabriel Thistlethwaite, Clerk; James Rigge, Esquire; Henry Wilson, Esquire; Dr. Edmund Grindall, Archbishop of Canterbury; Thomas Earl of Thanet; and Thomas Sandys, Esquire; within the QUEEN'S COLLEGE, in the UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary Winchester," ordain as follows, in relation to the Exhibitions or Scholarships of the Foundations of Frederick Tylney, Esquire; Dr. John Thomas, Bishop of Rochester; George Holme, Doctor in Divinity; Gabriel Thistlethwaite, Clerk; James Rigge, Esquire; Henry Wilson, Esquire; Dr. Edmund Grindall, Archbishop of Canterbury; Thomas Earl of Thanet; and Thomas Sandys, Esquire, within the Queen's College in the said University.

The aforesaid Exhibitions and Scholarships shall be respectively tenable for five years from the day of election inclusive, and no longer. Every Exhibitioner shall be subject to such regulations as to residence, instruction, discipline, and attendance on divine worship as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time determine, and may be deprived of his Exhibition by the Provost and Fellows for any misconduct which in their judgment shall merit deprivation, subject to such appeal to the Visitor as is provided in Clause 59 of an Ordinance framed by us in relation to the said College, and bearing date the ninth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight. Every Exhibitioner who shall marry, be elected to a Fellowship, or cease to be a member of the College, shall thereby vacate his Exhibition. No person shall be eligible to any Exhibition who shall have exceeded the eighth term from that of his matriculation inclusive. In elections to any Exhibition no person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his having been educated at any particular school, unless he shall have been educated at such school for two years at least last preceding the day of election, or last preceding his matriculation in the University; but no greater period than two years shall in any case be required, notwithstanding anything contained in any instrument of foundation. Notice of every intended election to any Exhibition shall be given by the Provost, if the Provost and Fellows shall be the electors thereto; or, if not by the elector or electors, in such manner as the Provost or elector or electors, as the case may be, shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity. The electors to the Exhibitions of the Foundations of the said George Holme and Henry Wilson shall be the Provost and Fellows. The candidates for every Exhibition shall be examined by such persons and in such manner as the electors thereto shall determine, and that candidate shall be elected who after such examination shall appear to the electors to be of the greatest merit and fitness.

Whenever there shall be no candidate for any vacant Exhibition, to which the Provost and Fellows are or shall be the electors, entitled to preference according to the provisions of the instrument of Foundation and this Ordinance, whom the electors shall judge of sufficient merit for election, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to elect for that turn any person of sufficient merit who would be eligible to one of the Fifteen Scholarships of the College, and to hold the election to such Exhibition on any day not later than the next ensuing stated day of election of Scholars. At least thirty days' previous notice of every such election shall be given by the Provost, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity.

Whenever there shall be no candidate for any vacant Exhibition, not being an Exhibition the election to which is or shall be vested in the Provost and Fellows, entitled to preference according to the provisions of the instrument of Foundation and this Ordinance, of sufficient merit for election in the judgment of the electors, the Exhibition shall be declared open for that turn to general competition, and the election thereto shall be postponed to some other day to be fixed by the electors, who shall give notice thereof in such manner as they shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity.

The Provost and Fellows shall not admit as an Exhibitioner any person nominated or elected to any Exhibition (not being an Exhibition the election to which is or shall be vested in them) who shall not, in their judgment, be fit to be an Exhibitioner of the College.

The two Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Frederick Tylney shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the two existing Exhibitions. In elections to the said Exhibition, no person shall be ineligible or entitled to preference by reason of his place of birth.

The three Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Doctor John Thomas shall be consolidated into two Exhibitions, the holders of which shall receive in equal shares the net income of that Foundation. Whenever there shall be no candidate for a vacant Exhibition of that Foundation entitled to preference according to the provisions of the instrument of Foundation and this Ordinance, and of sufficient merit for election in the judgment of the electors, such Exhibition shall be thrown open for that turn to the sons of all clergymen who shall have been for three years resident in the present diocese of Carlisle.

The six Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said George Holme shall be consolidated into two Exhibitions, the holders of which shall receive in equal shares the net income of that Foundation. No person shall be entitled to preference in elections to any Exhibition of the Foundations of the said George Holme or Gabriel Thistlethwaite by reason of his being a Tabarder or Scholar of the old Foundation, or one of the poor children of the College.

The two Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said James Rigge shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the two existing Exhibitions.

The four Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Henry Wilson for persons educated at the Free Grammar School of Kirkby Lonsdale shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the four existing Exhibitions. In elections to such Exhibition, no person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his having been born in the parish of Kirkby Lonsdale. The three Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Henry Wilson for persons educated at the Free Grammar School of Kendal shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the said three existing Exhibitions.

The two Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Edmund Grindall shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the said two existing Exhibitions.

The five Exhibitions of the Foundation of the said Thomas Earl of Thanet shall be consolidated into one Exhibition, the holder of which shall receive all the emoluments of the said five existing Exhibitions. In elections to such Exhibition no person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his being a son of a tenant of the Earl of Thanet or his family within any manor or parish in the county of Westmoreland or elsewhere.

No Scholarship or Exhibition shall be tenable with any Scholarship, Exhibition, or Bible Clerkship within the College, in any case in which the aggregate income of the two emoluments shall exceed one hundred and ten pounds per annum.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to existing Exhibitioners or Scholars as well as to Exhibitioners or Scholars hereafter to be elected, except that every existing Exhibitioner or Scholar shall be entitled to hold his Exhibition or Scholarship for the period for which the same would have been tenable by him if this Ordinance had not been made.

Given under our Common Seal this sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.
