

Crown Life Assurance Company.

33, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars,
London.

AN Extraordinary General Court of the Proprietors of the Crown Life Assurance Company will be held at the Company's Office, in New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, in the city of London, on Friday, the 27th day of August, 1858, at the hour of one of the clock in the afternoon precisely, for the purpose of confirming or rejecting the resolutions of the Extraordinary Board of Directors, holden on the 11th day of June, 1858, for regulating the division of the profits among the assured in the proportion in which each policy has contributed to the surplus to be divided; and for allowing the assured to share in the profits at the first division after their policies have been effected, although they may not have been in force for three years before the 15th May, in the year in which such division of profits shall be made; and for extending the time allowed for completing the calculations at each division of profits to a time not exceeding six calendar months from and after the 25th of March, in the years in which each division shall be made; and for providing that the profit allotted to all policies which shall have been in force on the 25th of March, in the year in which the division shall be made, shall be payable to the assured, although the policy may have become a claim before the declaration of the bonus; and for providing that policies on joint lives be allowed to participate in the profits in the same manner as policies on single lives for the whole term; and for providing that it be a condition that the bonuses assigned to policies shall only become vested in the assured when and so soon as three full years premiums shall have been paid; and that the assured shall not have the option of applying the bonuses towards reduction of their premiums or dealing with them in any other manner, until they shall have paid three full years' premiums; and for providing that the profits shall be divided quinquennially instead of septennially, from and after the year 1860, when the next septennial division shall be made; and for providing that alteration be made to allow of the appointment of more than one Solicitor to act for the Company, at the same time; and for providing that alteration be made to allow of a reduction in the number of Directors from 15 to a number not less than 12; and for providing that to enable the Company to issue their policies free from expense of stamp duty the requirement that the policy stamp duty shall be paid by the assured to the Company be cancelled; and for making consequent alterations in the existing laws and regulations of the Company, or amending the same as far as they relate to the several matters aforesaid.—Dated the 2nd day of August, 1858.

By order of the Board,
