

trict of Christ Church, Cats-hill, in the said county and diocese, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of the Holy Trinity, situate at the Lickey aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, and of the Reverend William Villers, Vicar of the parish of Bromsgrove aforesaid, and as such Vicar Patron of the said chapelry district of Christ Church, Cats-hill, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, Patrons of the said parishes of Bromsgrove and King's Norton (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their capitular seal) we humbly represent that, in our opinion, it would be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Bromsgrove and King's Norton, and the chapelry district of Christ Church, Cats-hill, described in the schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map hereunto annexed, should be united into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of the Holy Trinity at the Lickey aforesaid, and that the same should be named "The Consolidated Chapelry of the Lickey."

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Dean and Chapter and the said William Villers (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Bromsgrove.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those several parts of the parish of Bromsgrove and the district chapelry of Cats-hill, both in the county and diocese of Worcester, which are situate on the eastern side of an imaginary line, commencing on the boundary between the said parish of Bromsgrove and the parish of Tardbigge, at a point in the middle of the road called Blackwell-road, leading from Blackwell Railway-station to Watery-lane, and extending thence northward along the middle of the Blackwell-road aforesaid, to the middle of Watery-lane aforesaid, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of Rock End-lane, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of the highway, leading from Tardbigge to Birmingham, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-named road, as far as the junction of the Old and New Birmingham roads, and extending thence northward along the middle of the old Birmingham road aforesaid, to a point opposite to the middle of the southernmost end of a certain lane, called Sandy-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of a lane called Linehouse-lane, leading from Linehouse to Upper Cats-hill, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane, to the middle of the old Birmingham road aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite the middle of a certain lane called Beacon-lane, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to the middle of the road, known as the Alvechurch highway, leading from the old Birmingham road through Lydiate Ash, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned road, crossing the new Birmingham-road aforesaid to the middle of a road called Halesowen-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-named road to a point opposite the middle of Chadwick-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned lane to the middle of the new Birmingham-road aforesaid, and extending thence in the same direction along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of a lane called Wetty-lane, and extending thence north-eastward and northward along the middle of such last-named lane, to the boundary dividing the parish of King's Norton from the parish of Bromsgrove aforesaid.

"And also all that part of the said parish of King's Norton, in the said county and diocese of Worcester, which is situate to the west of that portion of the Birmingham and Gloucester Railway, which lies between Grovely-lane and the road leading from Alvechurch to Northfield."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation; together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at the Lickey, in the parish of Bromsgrove, in the county of Worcester, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Bromsgrove, he being the person mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us out of the common fund in the said Act mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the First Schedule
