AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the "laws concerning the burial of the dead in "England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of CLAYBROOK, from the first of October next to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard of the parish of GILLINGHAM, Kent, from the first of September, instant, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

War-Office, 3rd September, 1858.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officer and Soldier, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their respective names; viz.:

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
4th Bengal Native Infantry	Lieutenant (now Captain) Frederick Robertson Aikman Date of Act of Bravery, 1st March, 1853	This Officer, Commanding the 3rd Sikh Cavalry on the advanced Picquet, with one hundred of his men, having obtained information, just as the Force marched on the morning of the 1st of March last, of the proximity, three miles off the high road, of a body of 500 Rebel Infantry, 200 Horse, and 2 Guns, under Moosahib Ali Chhuckbdar, attacked and utterly routed them, cutting up more than 100 men, capturing two guns, and driving the survivors into, and over, the Goomtee. This feat was performed under every disadvantage of broken ground, and partially under the flanking fire of an adjoining Fort. Lieutenant Aikman received a severe sabre cut in the face in a personal encounter with several of the enemy.
Bengal Horse Artillery	Gunner William Connolly Date of Act of Bravery, 7th July, 1857	This Soldier is recommended for the Victoria Cross for his gallantry in Action with the Enemy, at Jhelum, on the 7th of July, 1857. Lieutenant Cookes, Bengal Horse Artillery, reports, that "about daybreak on that day, I advanced my half Troop at a gallop, and engaged the Enemy within easy musket range. The Sponge-man of one of my Guns having been shot during the advance, Gunner Connolly assumed the duties of 2nd Sponge-man, and he had barely assisted in two discharges of his Gun, when a musket-ball, through the left thigh, felled him to the ground; nothing daunted by pain and loss of blood, he was endeavouring to resume his post, when I ordered a movement in retirement, and though severely wounded, he was mounted on his horse in the Gun-team, and rode to the next position which the Guns took up, and manfully declined going to the rear when the necessity of his so doing was represented to him. About eleven o'clock, A.M., when the Guns were still in Action, the same Gunner, whilst sponging, was again knocked down by a musket-ball striking him on the hip, thereby causing great faintness and partial unconsciousness, for the pain appeared excessive, and the blood flowed fast. On seeing this, I gave directions for his removal out of Action; but this brave man hearing me, staggered to his feet, and said, 'No, Sir, I'll not go there, whilst I can work here,' and shortly afterwards he again resumed his post as Sponge-man. Late in the afternoon of the same day, my three Guns were engaged at one hundred yards from the Walls of a Village with the defenders, viz., the 14th Native Infantry—Mutineers—amidst a storm of bullets which did great execution. Gunner Connolly, though suffering severely from his two previous wounds, was wielding his sponge with an energy and courage which attracted the admiration of his comrades, and while cheerfully encouraging a wounded man to hasten in bringing up the ammunition, a musket-

C. C. Greville.

ORDINANCE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

WHEREAS, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “An Act to make further provision for the Good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary, Winchester,” framed and settled an Ordinance in relation to Pembroke College, in the said University, dated the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, which Ordinance was duly approved by Her Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and whereas, the said Ordinance contains the following clauses:

“36. The Elections to the Scholarships to be maintained out of the common fund (others than the Abingdon Scholarships), shall take place annually in Hilary Term, on a day to be fixed by the Master (subject to the provision for postponement hereinafter contained), and notice of such intended election shall be given by the Master, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election.

“47. Whenever a King Charles the First's Scholarship, an Abingdon Scholarship, a Bishop Morley, Rous or Holford Scholarship, or a Scholarship of George Townsend's foundation shall be vacant; and no candidate shall offer himself for such scholarship, duly qualified by nomination or otherwise, according to the foregoing provisions, or in case of a Townsend Scholarship, qualified according to the instrument of Foundation of these Scholarships, (as the case may be,) whom the electors shall judge of sufficient merit for election, such scholarship shall be thrown open for that term, and the Election shall be postponed to a day to be fixed by the Master and Fellows, not later than the next ensuing day of Election to the Scholarships (other than the Abingdon Scholarships), to be maintained out of the Common Fund, and shall be conducted in the same manner, and after the same previous notice as the Election to such Scholarship.”

And whereas, by an Act passed in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled “An Act to amend the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, concerning the University of Oxford and the College of Saint Mary, Winchester,” it is enacted that it shall be lawful for any College, of or in relation to which any regulation, ordinance, or statute, shall have been applied by Her Majesty in Council, under section thirty-six of the said Act, from time to time, with the approval of the Commissioners, and during the continuance of their powers under the said Act, to amend or alter such regulation, ordinance, or statute, subject to the same conditions and provisions as are imposed by the Act, in relation to the making of the original regulation, ordinance, or statute.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance of the nineteenth of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, should be amended as hereinafter mentioned.

We, the Master and Fellows of Pembroke College aforesaid, ordain as follows:—The said Ordinance of the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, shall henceforth be read as if in lieu of the clauses hereinafter set forth, there had been inserted the clauses following.

“36. The Elections to the Scholarships to be maintained out of the Common Fund, (other than the Abingdon Scholarships), shall take place on a stated day or stated days in each year, to be appointed, from time to time, by the Master and Fellows, subject to the provisions for postponement hereinafter contained, and notice of such intended Election shall be given by the Master, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election.

“47. Whenever a King Charles the First's Scholarship, an Abingdon Scholarship, a Bishop Morley, Rous or Holford Scholarship, or a Scholarship on George Townsend's Foundation shall be vacant, and no candidate shall offer himself for such Scholarship, duly qualified by nomination or otherwise, according to the foregoing provisions; or, in the case of a Townsend Scholarship, qualified according to the Instrument of Foundation of these Scholarships (as the case may be), whom the Master and Fellows shall judge of sufficient merit for election, such Scholarship shall be thrown open for that term; and the Election shall be postponed to a day, to be fixed by the Master and Fellows, not later than the next ensuing stated day of Election to the Scholarships (other than the Abingdon Scholarships), to be maintained out of the Common Fund, and shall be conducted in the same manner, and after the same previous notice, as the Election to open Scholarships: Provided always, that the emoluments of every Scholar so elected, as last aforesaid, shall accrue from the same time as if being qualified by nomination or otherwise, he had been elected on the day on which the Election would have taken place, if there had been no postponement, and shall not in any case, be enjoyed for more than five years, to be computed from that day."

Given under our Common Seal this third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

FRANCIS JEUNE, D.C.L., Master.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, copy of a Notice, issued by the Netherlands Minister of Marine, descriptive of a Bell-Beacon, recently placed near the Schouwen Bank, in the North Sea. A translation is subjoined.

(Translation.)

A bell-beacon, constructed of iron, in the form of a boat, painted black, has recently been moored in the North Sea, near the N.E. end of the "Schouwen Bank."

On the mast are fixed two triangles of trellis-work (treillages) one placed fore and aft, and the other athwart-ships, and painted with horizontal stripes, white and black alternately.

One of the black stripes bears the inscription "Schouwen-Bank," and one of the white stripes "W. Schouwen, Z. O. misw."

At the mast-head are two black wings of elliptical form, crossing at right angles, between which is suspended a large bell, the loud and deep sound of which serves as a warning at night, and in foggy weather.

The height of the whole is more than 7 metres, or about 20 feet above the level of the sea, and will be visible in clear weather at a distance of about 2 geographical leagues, or 8 English miles.

The beacon is moored in 26 metres, about  $12\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms, at ordinary low water, in latitude  $51^{\circ} 47' N.$ , and longitude  $3^{\circ} 27' E.$  (Greenwich).

The bearings (magnetic) are as follows:

Schouwen revolving light, S.E.

West-Kasselle Light S. by W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W.

(Dated) The Hague 17th August, 1858.
