AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the incumbent and churchwardens, or other persons having the care of the vaults under the church of Saint Margaret, Westminster, has made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said vaults from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, the Acts hereinafter set forth should be done in respect of such vaults;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or such other person as may have the care of the vaults under the said Church of Saint Margaret, Westminster, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such vaults; viz.:

That all the coffins deposited in the vaults beneath the church of Saint Margaret, Westminster, be completely covered with fresh soil, mixed with powdered charcoal, or with McDougall's disinfecting powder, and entombed by concrete, brick, or stone work in an air-tight manner, and the vaults lime-washed, their entrances from the church closed by brick or stone work, and ventilating shafts constructed, and that the work be executed under the superintendance of Mr. Holland, Inspector of Burial-grounds.
