

swere, That the Emperor had not to do with private Persons, but with the Port, which had broken the Treaties, in protecting the Hungarian Rebels, taking several places, and exercising great Cruelties upon his Imperial Majesty's Subjects, even before the Declaration of the War; That the Emperor had been obliged to enter into a League with the King of Poland, and the Republick of Venice; That the Punishment of some particular Persons was not a sufficient Satisfaction for so unjust a War; But that the Port ought to make the Emperor Reparation for the Damages his Subjects had sustained, and for the Expences of the War, and satisfy his Allies. That his Imperial Majesty was very desirous of Peace, which he had always religiously observed, and should not refuse to enter upon a Treaty, in case the Port proposed reasonable Conditions upon which a firm Peace might be established; That his Imperial Majesty had otherwise reason to believe they did not sincerely intend it, especially seeing they continued to shelter and protect Teckelej, the chief of the Rebels.

Vienna, Febr. 9. The Advices from Hungary confirm the News we had by our former Letters, that Teckelej, who had burnt several Villages on the side of Segedin, and committed great Cruelties upon the Inhabitants, had been wounded in his Thigh and Knee, in a Rencontre he had with a Party of that Garrison who were sent out to fight him; in which they succeeded so well, that they put the Rebels and the Turks that were with them to flight. The Rebels of Montatz continue likewise their Incursions, and to burn the Villages round that place; but in the last they made, they were met by a Party of Dragoons of the Regiment of Magni, and were beaten back, 50 of them being killed, and many wounded, and this with the loss only of 6 Men on the side of the Imperialists. We have an account from Electer Hungary, that the Turks having sent Detachments from Sygeth and Canisa, to attack the Imperial Convoy that was going to St. Charles, they had been defeated by the Troops that conducted the said Convoy, under the Command of Colonel Macari, 200 of the Enemy being killed upon the place, and 40 taken Prisoners. The Preparations are continued for the Bombarding of Anzin.

Hamburg, Febr. 15. They write from Berlin, that the Electer of Brandenburg is going to raise four new Regiments; And we are told from Dresden, that the Electer of Saxony has likewise resolved to make some new Levies.

Brussels, Febr. 25. Our Governor-General returned hither yesterday from Antwerp; He intends to go the next week to Ghaunt, and afterwards to Namur. The last Letters from Vienna told us, that they had advice from Hungary, that Teckelej, who had made an Incursion into the Imperial Quarters on the side of Segedin, had been met and beaten by a Party of that Garrison, and himself wounded; And that the Turks of Sygeth and Canisa having drawn together a Body of Horse and Foot, to intercept the Convoy that was marching from Syria to Fiv Churches, the Imperialists, upon notice of it, had fallen upon them, killed 200, taken 40, and put the rest to flight.

Hague, Febr. 22. The Deputies of the States of Holland and those of the African Company of that Country, continue their Conferences with the Brandenburg Ministers for the adjusting the Differences depending between the said Company and the Elector of the said Highness. Eight Men of War are fitting out, 3 by Amsterdam, 2 by Rotterdam, and one by North Holland, to be employed in the Mediterranean against the Algerines. The Ma-rchal de Schomberg will part from hence in few days for Germany.

Hague, Febr. 25. The Marquis Alberville Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain, had yesterday his publick Audience of the States-General, being attended by all the English Gentlemen that were here; He had a Train of above 30 Coaches, his own as likewise his Liveries were very proper and noble, and the Ceremony was performed with a great deal of Splendor; after which, he entertained at Dinner the States Deputies, with divers other Persons of Quality.

Paris, Febr. 26. The Cardinal Nuncio had on Friday last a long Audience of the King. The same day arrived here an Extraordinary Courier from Rome. There are 28 Battalions appointed to work the next Summer on the River Eure.

Whitehall, Febr. 18. His Majesty was this day Graciously pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Charles Cottrell Esq; Master of the Ceremonies, and at the same time to put about his Neck a Gold Chain and Medal, the mark of his Office.

Advertisements.

ON Tuesday next, being the 22d of this Instant February, will be sold by Auction, a Curious Collection of Books, consisting chiefly of History, Philology, Common and Statute Law, at Richard's Coffee-house in Fleet Street, being an Appendix to Mr. Charles Mearne's Books, late Book-seller to His Majesty. The Catalogues are distributed at the place of sale to all Gentlemen that will please to come, or send for them.

THE Creditors of Mr. Thomas and Samuel Price, are desired to meet at John's Coffee-house in White-Fryers, on Thursday the 24th Instant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to settle the Proposals and Assignees.

THE Pelican in Little Britain, this present Monday (Febr. 21.) will begin the Sale, by Auction, of a very good Collection of English Books in Philology, History, and other Humane Learning; And will be there continued from day to day, until all are sold. And those Gentlemen that are yet unprovided with Catalogues, may be supplied gratis at the Pelican aforesaid.

A Choice Collection of Books, as well Latin, Greek, &c. as English, in Divinity, Physick, Philology, History, Poetry, &c. will be Exposed to Sale, by Auction, on Monday the 28th Instant, at Mr. Thomas Bowman's Book-seller in Oxford, where Catalogues are given to such Gentlemen as shall please so send for them.

THE 16th Instant John Tomkinson, aged about 20 years, of a middle stature, short dark Peruke, and dark Complexion, Run away from his Master at Rochester with a Mare about 14 hands high, between a strawberry and a sorrel colour, Bald-face, a Black-tail, her Hind-feet white, lately rowled in the near Shoulder and Knee, fresh new hair upon the near Knee, and a Brand Mark with W. I. upon her Hip, the Saddle with a blue plush Seat, and took away about 40 l. in Gold and Silver, being several Outlandish pieces of Gold, a Silver Salt-seller, a R. W. M. a Silver Box of Two-pences, and other small Coins; A new fashionable Suit near a Nutmeg colour, gold froit Buttons, and gold Holed, besides a considerable quantity of Cloaths, and other Linnen. Whoever apprehends the Person and secures the Mare, shall have 5 l. Reward; giving Notice to Mr. Bevis at the Posthouse in Rochester, or to Mr. Nicholas Hooper near the Feathers Tavern in Cheapside.

LOST the 4th or 5th Instant, upon the Road between Ballock and London, or between Newgate market and the Pewter-Plater in St. John's Street, London, a Deal Box about 14 inches long, full of Paper Books, most of them writ, with other little things besides. Whoever brings them to Sir John Cotton at Cotton-house in the Old Palace-yard, Westminster, shall have a Guinea Reward.

LOST one of Leicester Fields the 12th Instant, a middle sized black and white Spaniel Dog with black Ears, and black Spots on his Body, long shag hair under his throat, and a curled white tail. Whoever brings the said Dog to Mr. Mahy an Apothecary at the Petite and Morlat in the Pall Mall, shall have a Guinea Reward.

LOST the 17th Instant, out of James's Street, Covent-Garden, late at Night, a little Spaniel Dog, Liver colour, and white, his Ears large, and all Liver colour, a parrot white Slip down his Face, a short bushy Tail, white at the end. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. Ruggers at the Black Potts next the Three Black Birds in James's Street, Covent-Garden, so as he may be had again, shall have a Guinea Reward.