TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1858.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the master or owner of any ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the light dues, authorized to be levied by the said Act, are paid and collected;

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond are erecting, and about to light, two new lighthouses, at High Whitby, on the coast of Yorkshire;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, upon the completion and lighting of the said lights, there shall be paid in respect of such lights, for every British vessel, and for every foreign vessel privileged to enter the ports of the United Kingdom upon paying the same duties as are payable by British vessels, which may pass or derive benefit from such lights, the toll of three-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such vessel, for every time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on an oversea voyage; and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on a coasting voyage; and for every foreign vessel not privileged in manner hereinbefore mentioned double the amount of the respective tolls hereinbefore specified, according to the voyage on which she may be employed. And that the said tolls, in respect of the said lighthouses, shall be levied by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the abatement or discount of twenty-five per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of ten per cent. on vessels engaged in coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and subject also to the further abatement or discount of fifteen per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of fifteen per cent. on vessels engaged in coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council, dated the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and subject also to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, sanctioned by the said Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of September, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Middlesbrough Improvement Act, 1856," it is enacted that when the burgesses entered on the burgess roll of the borough, shall exceed one thousand three hundred in number, it shall be lawful for the council, with the consent and approbation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to declare that after a time, to be specified in a resolution to be passed by the council for that purpose, the council shall consist of a mayor, six aldermen, and eighteen councillors, and that the borough shall be divided into three wards, and with the like consent to appoint a barrister to divide the borough into three wards, and to set out within the period of one calendar month after the date of his or their appointment, the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of the borough shall be included therein respectively, but so, nevertheless, that no ward shall, at the time of such division, contain less than three hundred burgesses, and the barrister setting out such wards shall apportion among such wards the eighteen councillors of the borough, and in assigning the number of councillors to each ward, the said barrister shall, as far as in his judgment he may deem it to be practicable, have regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in such ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons shall be so rated: Provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward shall be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of such division into wards, and of the number of
