Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 21, 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Monte Video, enclosing copy of a Law recently enacted by the Monte Videan Government, containing the following regulations with respect to the payment of Customs' Duties, and exempting from Import Duties the articles undermentioned:—

ART. 9.—The amount of the import duties shall be satisfied by each importer in the following manner:

1. In cash, if the duties do not exceed five hundred dollars.
2. If they exceed five hundred dollars, the fourth part shall be given in cash, and the other three-fourths parts in bills of exchange, at two and four months' sight, by halves.

ART. 10.—The terms shall be reckoned in all cases from the day in which the despatch may have taken place.

ART. 11.—The bills above mentioned shall be signed by the importer and by a merchant established and domiciled in the place, to the satisfaction of the Custom House, both being jointly responsible for the whole.

ART. 12.—Five days, at most, after the despatch of the effects or merchandize, and after the end of the term of the bills, the importers or guaranties not having paid the duties, the Custom House shall proceed to sell by public auction the effects which the said importers might have in deposit, sufficient to cover those duties.

There being no goods in deposit, it shall prosecute them before the tribunals.

ART. 13.—The following goods or invoices shall not pay any import duties:

Large machines for the use of agriculture and industry and improved ploughs, every kind of steam machine, whatever be the use for which it may be destined.

Machines or apparatus which may serve to construct, improve, or keep the roads in order, to clean roadsteads or ports, to open and keep channels of navigation, and improve those of the rivers, the steamers which may come in pieces to be put together in our ports and rivers, surgical instruments, machines and apparatus destined for the study of mathematics and natural sciences.

Printing machines and the paper for their use.

Printed books, sea-salt, coals, barks for tanning, ashes without being prepared, wooden hoops and staves, ox, cow, horse and sheep hides with hair, dry or salted and other unprepared hides, tallow and grease, wool, hair, horns, and other animal produce, called produce of the country; live animals for the encouragement of industry and improvement of breeds, gold and silver coin and bullion, seeds and plants destined for agriculture and gardening; baggage, the total weight of which does not exceed fifteen arrobas and ice.

The articles which the executive power may consider exclusively destined for public worship, and which may be required by the priests in charge of the churches.

The instruments or utensils which may serve for some of the objects to which the machines and apparatus exempted from the import duty may be destined, cannot in any case be assimilated to the said machines and apparatus, and shall be subject to the duty established by the law, in case they are not expressly mentioned in the tariff.

ART. 14.—The importation of gold and silver coins which have not the legal weight is prohibited, as well as copper money, unless imported on account of the Government.

ART. 15.—The duty which flour ought to pay shall be regulated in proportion to the price of wheat in the market, viz.:—When the price of wheat is from 3 to 4 dollars the fanega, 65 per cent.; when from 4 to 5 dollars, 55 per cent.; when from 5 to 6 dollars, 45 per cent.; when from 6 to 7 dollars, 35 per cent.; when from 7 to 8 dollars, 30 per cent.; when from 8 to 9 dollars, 25 per cent.; when from 9 to 10 dollars, 20 per cent.; when from 10 dollars upwards, 15 per cent.

CONTRACT FOR BRAZIER'S, FOUNDER'S AND COPPERSMITH'S GOODS.

Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, October 11, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 2nd November next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying
Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with

BRAZIER'S, FOUNDER'S AND

COPPERSMITH'S GOODS,

under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of three months'
warning.

Patterns of the articles may be seen and a form of the tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained, at the said office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Brazier's, Founder's and Coppersmith's Goods," and must be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1,000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR SHOES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services,
Somerset-House, October 9, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom
of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 28th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying
and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Gosport, and Plymouth,

Shoes, 30,000 pairs, Deptford; 10,000 pairs, Gosport; 10,000 pairs, Plymouth; one-fourth of each quantity to be delivered in two months, another fourth in three months, another fourth in four months, and the remainder in five months from the date of contract, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the shoes.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power,
when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

Separate tenders must be made for each place,
and no attention will be paid to any offer not so made.

Patterns of the shoes may be seen at the said office, and also at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, at the Victualling Yards at Gosport and Plymouth, and also at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Shoes," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
