

London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the incumbent and churchwardens, or other person or persons, having the care of the vaults under the church of SAINT ANNE, SOHO, and the churchyard, has made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the said vaults from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, the acts hereinafter set forth should be done in respect of such vaults;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens, or such other person or persons as may have the care of the vaults under the said church of SAINT ANNE, SOHO, and the churchyard, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such vaults; viz.:

That in the vaults beneath the church of SAINT ANNE, SOHO, the walls be whitewashed, and the coffins covered with soil mixed with charcoal or McDougal's disinfecting powder, and entombed by brick work in an air-tight manner, so as to intercept all communication with the interior of the church, and that ventilating channels be formed from the vaults to the top of the building;

That the work be conducted under the supervision of the Officer of Health of the Strand District;

That, where necessary, the churchyard be covered with garden mould, on which a growing vegetation shall be maintained.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1858,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof, shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation had been duly given to the incumbents and churchwardens of SAINT PANCRAS, or other person or persons having the care of the vaults under the churches in the parish of Saint Pancras, has made a representation, stating that he was of opinion that, for the purpose of preventing the vaults under the new parish church of Saint Pancras, and under the district churches of Camden Town and Kentish Town, in the parish of St. Pancras, from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, the acts hereinafter set forth should be done in respect of such vaults;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens of Saint Pancras, or such other person or persons as may have the care of the vaults under the said new church of SAINT PANCRAS, and under the district churches of CAMDEN TOWN and KENTISH TOWN, in the parish of Saint Pancras, do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures in respect of such vaults; viz.:

That in the vaults of SAINT PANCRAS NEW CHURCH and of CAMDEN TOWN CHURCH, the coffins be covered with soil mixed with charcoal or McDougal's disinfecting powder, and that the vaults be closed with brick work or masonry in an airtight manner;

That the same precautions be adopted in the vaults of the KENTISH TOWN CHURCH, in addition to which ventilating channels be constructed to convey any escaping air from the vaults to the top of the building.
