NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for an Act for the union and amalgamation from and after such period, and upon such terms and conditions as may have been or may hereafter be agreed upon, or as may be fixed, ascertained, and determined in and by, or under the provisions of, the said intended Act, of the Bedale and Leyburn Railway Company, with the North Eastern Railway Company, and for the union and consolidation into one undertaking of the undertakings of such two Companies respectively, so that the undertakings, property, estate and effects, rights, powers, and privileges of what nature or kind soever, and whether with reference to the purchase of lands and houses, construction of works, levying of tolls, rates, and duties, or otherwise vested in and belonging to, or exercised and enjoyed by, the said Companies, severally or jointly, at the time of the said amalgamation, may be vested in and belong to, and be exercised and enjoyed by, the North Eastern Railway Company, as such one united and consolidated Company.

And it is intended by the said Act to empower the North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Company to sell or transfer, and the North Eastern Railway Company to purchase and hold, the Rosedale Branch Railway and Ingleby Private Branch Railway and works connected therewith respectively by "The North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Act, 1858," authorised to be constructed and purchased respectively, or otherwise to unite and amalgamate such branch railways, and the undertaking generally of the North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Company, with the undertaking of the North Eastern Railway Company, and to vest all the powers of the North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Company in relation to such branch railways and undertaking, and also in relation to any other undertaking, and all other powers of that Company, in the North Eastern Railway Company, and to enable the last-named Company to exercise all such powers. And it is intended by the said Act or Bill to enable the North Eastern Railway Company to apply any of their existing or authorised capital to any of the purposes to be authorised by the said Act or Bill, and to raise additional capital for all or any of intended Act, and to grant and secure all necessary facilities for the passage and transmission of such passengers, goods, animals, and other traffic from and to and over the said before mentioned portions of railway to and from the North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway, and to enable the North Eastern Railway Company and other Companies and persons aforesaid to charge and take tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the conveyance of such passengers, goods, animals, and other traffic; and to confer exemptions from such tolls, rates, and duties, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights, privileges, and exemptions; and also to enable the North Eastern and Stockton and Darlington Railway Companies to enter into and make agreements and arrangements as to interchange and transmission of traffic between and by their respective railways, and the use of the stations, sidings, works, and conveniences belonging to them respectively, where such railways join, or are connected with each other.

And it is also proposed by the said intended Act to alter, amend, extend, enlarge, and repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts of Parliament following (that is to say), the 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 137, and the 20th and 21st Vict., cap. 10, relating to the Bedale and Leyburn Railway Company; "The North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Act, 1854;" "The North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Act, 1855;" and "The North Yorkshire and Cleveland Railway Act, 1858;" and any Acts therein recited or referred to; the 17th and 18th Vict., caps. 73, 164, and 211; and the 20th and 21st Vict., caps. 19, 33, and 46, respectively relating to the North Eastern Railway Company and its undertaking, and the several Acts in such Acts respectively, or any of them, recited or referred to; the 12th and 13th Vict., cap. 54; and the 21st and 22nd Vict., caps. 115, 116, and 117, and any other Acts therein respectively recited, relating to the Stockton and Darlington Railway Company; and any other Acts of Parliament which it may be necessary to repeal, alter, or amend, for the purposes to be authorised by the said intended Act or Bill, and to confer other powers in lieu thereof and in addition thereto.
