

the Act passed in the session held in the ninth and tenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of Small Debts and Demands in England," was then established, and held for the county and town of Nottingham, into the limits of which said County Court the jurisdiction of the said court of local jurisdiction extended; and humbly praying that the jurisdiction of the said Court of Record be excluded in all causes whercof the said County Court hath cognizance;

"And whereas notice of such petition has been given as required by the said Act, and no petition against declaring such exclusion has been presented, and no caveat has been entered at the Council office;

"Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and doth hereby declare, that the jurisdiction of the said court of local jurisdiction in the borough of NOTTINGHAM, called Her Majesty's COURT OF RECORD for the town of Nottingham, be excluded in all causes whercof the County Court above mentioned hath cognizance.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of November, 1858,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "an Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts, made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, and in the twenty-second years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented, that it would be of advantage to the public, if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified and set forth in the aforesaid Order:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the thirty-
