Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 9, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 23rd instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Store at the under-mentioned places, the following quantities of

SOUTH WALES COALS,

Fit for the service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels,
St. Paul de Loando . . . 4,000 tons.
Fernando Po . . . 2,500 "

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tenders may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Coals," and must be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3,000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR AND COOPERS' FLAGS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, November 9th, 1858.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 25th instant, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Vinegar, 15,000 gallons; half to be delivered in six weeks, and the remainder in four weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Coopers' Flags 500 bolts; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Samples of the vinegar, which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted.

The vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination, and any portion of the quantity required may be tendered for, but not less than one quart must be sent as a sample.

Samples of the cooper's flags (not less than a bolt), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefore, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contract, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.
