Railway Clearing System Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and extend, and, if need be, to repeal and re-enact and vary, the provisions of the Act (13 and 14 Vict., c. 33) "for regulating legal proceedings by or against the Committee of Railway Companies associated under the clearing system, and for other purposes." Among other things, it is intended that the Bill shall contain provisions for extending "the clearing system" to foreign possessions of the crown, and to foreign states, as well as to all parts of the United Kingdom; for enabling companies and persons engaged in the carrying business, by land or by water, at home or abroad, to become parties to the clearing system, upon such conditions as the Bill may prescribe; for authorizing the committee of the clearing system to enter into arrangements with foreign establishments or associations, now or hereafter to be formed abroad, for accomplishing the like objects, or any of them; and generally, for extending and better carrying into effect the said clearing system.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December, 1858.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1858.
