TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage, was extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage; and it was by the same Act provided that the rates of postage from time to time to become payable under or by virtue of any Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under that Act, should be charged by, and be paid to; Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, for the use of Her Majesty, on all post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers, to which such Warrant should extend.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two first-mentioned Acts of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by a certain Warrant in writing under the hands of two of them the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 21st day of July, 1857, order, direct, and declare (amongst other things), that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the colonial legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom, and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule A to the said now reciting Warrant annexed. And that as respects certain of the said places in the said schedules respectively mentioned, such transmission might also be by the routes mentioned against such places in such schedules respectively. And that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively, should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said Schedules A and B. And that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage thereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad were, and are, two of the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A to the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, annexed.

And whereas the British West Indies (the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad and Turks Islands being excepted) were and are amongst the several colonies and places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule B to the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, annexed.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857 (except as hereinafter mentioned), to packets of a like kind to be transmitted by the post between the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad, and between such islands respectively; and the several other colonies in the British West Indies in the said Schedule B to the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, annexed mentioned, without passing through the United Kingdom, and also between the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively, and Malta or Gibraltar, through the United Kingdom, and also between the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively, and Hong Kong, via the United Kingdom and Egypt, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.
