

Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively, and Malta or Gibraltar, through the United Kingdom, and on every such last-mentioned packet so transmitted, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of sixpence. And all such packets may be so transmitted between the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively and Hong Kong, via the United Kingdom and Egypt. And on every such last-mentioned packet so transmitted, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of seven pence. And on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this present Warrant as aforesaid exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken, and paid on and in respect of the several packets mentioned and contained in and authorized to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, in like manner, in all respects as if the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively had been included in the term "British West Indies" in and by the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, mentioned.

2. All packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between the several colonies and places mentioned in the said Schedule B. to the said recited Warrant, annexed in like manner in all respects, and as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant, and as if the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad were included in the term British West Indies in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, mentioned, and as if the said islands of Barbadoes and Trinidad respectively, had been mentioned and contained and included in the said Schedule B., to the said reciting Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, annexed, together with the term "British West Indies," wherever the said term "British West Indies" occurs in the said Schedule B, except only so far as the same regulations, and directions, and conditions, were and are altered or affected in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 19th day of June, 1858, and as hereinafter, in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th clauses of this present Warrant, mentioned.

3. All letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post, and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and rates respectively herein, and in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, respectively mentioned and contained, or such of them as shall be applicable or relate thereto.

4. Any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post, under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or the regulations, orders, directions, conditions, or rates of postage herein respectively contained, or hereunto extended, or made applicable. And every such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters, and communications in the nature of letters, posted and addressed in like manner, anything in this present Warrant, or in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, relating to any such last-mentioned letter, notice, or other communication, to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding.

5. If any question shall arise, whether any such letter, notice, or other communication, as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, or as a communication in the nature of a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

6. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning and signification, in all respects, as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, except so far as the same are altered or affected by this present Warrant.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke, any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, regulations, orders, directions, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

8. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of February, 1859.
