By the Lord Deputy and Council.

TYRCONNELL.

Whereas We are informed that several disaffected persons within this His Majesties Kingdom have been of late very industriously by false Reports, and malicious Insinuations, to suggest to many of His Majesties Loyal Subjects, as if We His Majesties Chief Governour intended to govern under His Majesty here otherwise than by the known Law of this Land of Ireland, and as if some of His Majesties Loyal Subjects should stand in hazard of being disturbed and disquieted in their just Liberties, Properties and other Rights due to them by Law, which Calumnies have been heightened and encouraged by some few fiery Spirits in the Pulpits, by taking upon them to treat of Matters that do not lie within their Province; for which Aspersions there was not the least ground, but the perverse Humour and wicked Principles of the Authors, since His Sacred Majesty hath given all His Subjects frequent assurances of His Gracious Resolutions to Govern them by Law, and to Protect them in their respective Properties and Priviledges according to Law; which Resolutions of His said Majesty He has given Us His Deputy in particular charge to observe and signify to all His Subjects. For the removing therefore of all Fears and Jealousies proceeding from such scandalous Suggestions from the Hearts of His Majesties Subjects here, and for quieting the Minds of the People; And to the end that all His Majesties Good and Loyal Subjects may with cheerfulness apply themselves to their particular Concerns, Trade and Vocation; We the Lord Deputy and Council do hereby Publish and Declare, that We will, by the Grace of God, apply all Our Care and Industry to yield exact and perfect Obedience to His Majesties said Commands; and do hereby Publish and Declare in His Majesties behalf, that We shall take diligent Care that all His Majesties Subjects within this Kingdom, of what Perswasion in Religion or Degree, whatsoever they be, shall be Protected in their just Rights and Properties due to them by Law, and in the free Exercise of their Religion, provided they persevere in their Duty and Allegiance to His Majesty, without giving any occasion of Disturbance to the Peace of the Kingdom. And for the further preservation of the publick Peace of this Realm, We do Charge and Require all persons whatsoever, to forbear speaking any uncharitable or irreverend expressions of His Majesties Sacred Person or Government. And We do require all His Majesties Judges, Justices, Magistrates, and Officers, to take particular care that all persons that shall be discovered to be guilty of spreading such scandalous Reports, or using such malicious Insinuations, shall be prosecuted according to the utmost rigor of the Law, To the end the just Punishment to be inflicted upon them, may terrifie others from committing the like Crimes.

A DECLARATION.

TYRCONNELL.

Whereas, We find it requisite for His Majesties Service, that the Force He is obliged to maintain, for the preservation of the Peace of this His Kingdom, be kept in good Order and Discipline; And, that His Subjects may not suffer, by any Disorder, or Misbehavior, of any Officer or Soldier, within His Pay and Entertainment: We have thought hereby, to declare His Majesties Will and Pleasure; That in what place soever, any of his Forces within this Kingdom shall pass or remain, they shall duly pay their Quarrels, at the usual and agreed Rates; and shall not, upon any pretence whatsoever, refuse or avoid the same. And, to the end, that all Disputes, upon this Account, may be avoided; We do Command all Officers, in their respective Quarters, strictly to charge and publish, that the Soldiers do not exceed their ordinary weekly Allowance; and that no Innkeeper, Suttler, or other person, presume to give them Credit for more; and that if any shall transgress herein, We shall not hold Our selves obliged to see them satisfied. And, We do likewise strictly forbid, all Officers and Soldiers, to use any Violence, or reviling Language, or threatening Words, to any person whatsoever; or, to give any other Offence, or just cause of Complaint. And, in case any of the said Officers or Soldiers shall presume to commit any Spoil, or Disorder, or use any Violence, threatening or reviling words, or otherwise misbehave themselves; We do hereby require, all His Majesties loving Subjects, forthwith to make known the same to their Superior Officers, who are to cause Satisfaction to be made immediately to the persons injured. And if such Officer to whom Complaint is made, shall forbear or delay the causing due Satisfaction to be given, as aforesaid; the persons to whom the wrong is done, are then to present their Complaint to Us, that We may order speedy Justice to be done them, by reparation of the Injury. And, by causing the Officers or Soldiers, so offending, to be forthwith Callicied, and such further Punishments to be inflicted on them, as the nature and quality of their Offence shall deserve. And, We do further Declare, that all Officers and Soldiers in their March, as well as in their Quarters, shall pay for whatever they have, and shall not demand, or exact Money for Quarters; and that if any shall dare to do the contrary, they shall be punished by Calliciering, and Loss of their Pay: It being His Majesties Royal Intention and Command, that all Officers and Soldiers, in His service, behave themselves orderly in all things.

And whereas We are given to understand, that several Officers of the Army do frequently absent themselves from their respective Garisons; We do hereby strictly Charge and Require all Officers to repair to their Quarters within ten days, there to reside, and take care from time to time, that the Soldiers under their Command, do their respective Duties punctually, as well in the Discipline of War, as in their sober and peaceable demeanor towards the rest of their Fellow Subjects, His Majesties Liege People of this Kingdom; that all manner of Profaneness, and the effects of Idleness, Drinking, Whoring, Swearing, Cursing, and other Debaucheries may be avoided.

And We do further Require and Command, that all Officers and Soldiers from time to time, be aiding and assisting to the Civil Magistrates, and Officers, in apprehending all Tories, Breakers of Houses, Highway Robbers, and other Notorious Malfactors, that have, or shall at any time disturb the Peace and Quiet of any of His Majesties Loyal Subjects. And to the end that none may plead ignorance of these Our Commands and Declaration; We do hereby strictly charge and require the Officer commanding in Chief in every Garison, to publish them by Beat of Drum, to all the Soldiers drawn together.

And We do also Command all Sheriffs, Mayors, Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, to take Care to have these Our Orders made known to all His Majesties other Subjects; it being Our full and unalterable Resolution, to provide, in all things, to the utmost of Our Power, for the mutual Amity and good Correspondence of all His Majesties Loving Subjects whatever, whether Civil or Military within this Kingdom.

Given at His Majesties Castle at Dublin, the 24th day of February, 1686, and in the Third Year of His Majesties Reign.

By His Excellencies Command.
THO. SHERIDAN.

By the Lord Deputy and Council.

TYRCONNELL,

Whereas a late Proclamation issued forth by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of this Kingdom in December last for the suppressing of Tories, Robbers, and their Harbors in the words following,

WHereas there have been of late many Burglaries and Robberies committed in several parts of this Kingdom, to the ruine of some of His Majesties good Subjects, and to the great disquiet of many others; And it is found by experience, that His Majesties Mercy that hath been heretofore extended to some persons that have been attainted of such Crimes, hath been an encouragement to others to commit the like. For the prevention therefore of such Offences for the future, and the taking away all hopes of Impunity from such as shall hereafter be found Guilty thereof; We the Lord Lieutenant and Council have thought fit by this Our Proclamation, to Publish and Declare, that no Person or Persons who shall hereafter be Convict or Attainted of any Robbery or Burglary, are to expect any Pardon for the same, or have the Favour of being Transported into any Foreign Plantation; but that the Law in all such cases shall be put in due Execution. And also that for the speedy Tryal of such Persons as shall be Apprehended for any such Crimes, We shall take care that special Commissions shall from time to time be issued to that purpose into such Counties in this Kingdom where there shall be occasion for them.

And We do hereby further Require and Command, that the Laws of this Realm concerning the keeping of Watch and Ward, and for raising the Hue-and-Cry be duly observed and executed; And that His Majesties Judges of Assize, and Justices of Peace in the several Counties of this Kingdom do take care that such as shall be found negligent therein, as also the harbours of all notorious Robbers and Felons be duly prosecuted and proceeded against.

And the several Justices of Peace of this Kingdom are hereby also Required to be careful in taking sufficient Bail from such Offenders as shall be brought before them in all such Cases, where by the Examinations taken by them they shall find just reason to suspect or believe the Persons to be guilty of the Crimes whereof they shall be accused, and where such Persons are by Law Bailable. And where any Persons accused of the like Crimes shall fly from Justice, or cannot be Apprehended, the said Justices of Peace are in such cases to take Examinations concerning them, and return the same to the next Assizes, to the end that they may thereupon be indicted, which Indictments are from time to time to be forthwith returned into His Majesties Court of Chief Place, to the end that the Offenders therein named may be Outlawed thereupon. And all Commanders of Horse and Foot, and all others His Majesties Officers and loving Subjects are to be aiding and assisting in the due apprehension and bringing to Justice of such Persons as shall be suspected or accused of any Robberies or Burglaries, as they and every of them will answer the contrary at their perils.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin the 8th day of December, 1686.

Which Proclamation hath not yet met with the full Effect thereby intended, which has been much occasioned, as we are informed, by the carelessness and neglect of the Civil Magistrates in their Duty.

We therefore the Lord Deputy and Council do hereby Require all Judges of Assize, Justices, Magistrates, and all other His Majesties Officers, to take diligent care that the said Proclamation be duly observed in all the particulars thereof by them and every of them in their several Stations.

And We do further Require the several Judges of Assize, in their respective Circuits, to find out and Return to Us the Names of such of the Justices of Peace, Magistrates, and Officers, Civil or Military, that shall be found by them to have been any way refractory or negligent in pursuing the Tenor of the said Proclamation, to the end they and every of them may be dealt with according to the nature of their Offence.

And We further Declare, That We do expect that such Persons as will be instrumental in apprehending any of the said Tories, Robbers, and notorious Malefactors, in order to the bringing of them to condign punishment, shall be encouraged for their Good Services.
