

A card containing a statement of the object of the Addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to the Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

DE LA WARR,
Lord Chamberlain

Whitehall, March 10, 1859.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick William of Prussia of a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Carlisle in Council assembled, beg leave to tender our respectful and most cordial congratulations to your Majesty upon the kind Providence which has blessed your Majesty's Royal Daughter, the Princess of Prussia, with a Son, and has given an Heir to the Throne of Prussia.

We trust and pray that this happy event may tend to strengthen and cement the bonds of union and friendship which already exist between this country and the illustrious nation of Prussia, and that the young Prince, when called by Providence to ascend the Throne of his ancestors may prove a blessing to the country over which it may be his destiny to rule.

We earnestly pray that Europe may be preserved from being again involved in the horrors of war ; and that the union which happily subsists between two such powerful nations as England and Prussia may prove beneficial in tending to preserve to the nations of Europe the blessings of peace.

That your Majesty may yet long be spared to reign over a prosperous and contented people, and may have the comfort of seeing your numerous offspring in the enjoyment of all the blessings which a gracious Providence has in store, is the sincere and heartfelt prayer of your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects.

And, as in duty bound, we shall ever pray, &c.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the city of Carlisle, the 28th day of February, 1859.

Robert Ferguson, Mayor.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of March, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine ; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, section nineteen ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, section nineteen ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Wardle, in the new parish of Saint John Small Bridge, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

" Whereas it appears to us to be expedient, that the localities hereinafter described, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Wardle aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, the Reverend John Edward Nassau Molesworth, Doctor in Divinity, Vicar of the parish of Rochdale, in the said county and diocese, and as such Vicar, Patron of the said new parish of Saint John, Small Bridge, and of the chapelry of Littleborough, and the Reverend William Hornby, of Garstang, in the same county, Clerk, William Langton, of Liverpool, in the same county, Esquire, and Charles Langton, of Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, Patrons of the new parish of Whitworth, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said new parishes of Saint John Small Bridge, of Whitworth, and of the said chapelry of Littleborough (if any), described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map hereunto annexed, should be united into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James, situate at Wardle aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James Wardle.'

" And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Edward Nassau Molesworth, William Hornby, William Langton, and Charles Langton, as is testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry, should belong to and be exercised by the incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Saint John Small Bridge.
