Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1859.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 1, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's Palace, upon Thursday the 14th of April next, at two o'clock.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

DE LA WARR.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 1, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's Palace, on Wednesday the 6th of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to the Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to the Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to the Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the Addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to the Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

DE LA WARR,
Lord Chamberlain.

*War-Office, Pall-Mall,
March 29, 1859.*

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Royal sign manual, of which the following is a copy, to enquire into the present System of Recruiting the Army,

VICTORIA, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith,

To Our right trusty and well-beloved Beaumont, Baron Hotham, of that part of Our United Kingdom called Ireland, Major-General of Our Forces;

Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Alexander Murray Tulloch, Colonel in Our Army, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Military Superintendent of Out-Pensioners of Our Army;

Our trusty and well-beloved William Frederick Forster, Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Major-General of Our Forces;

Our trusty and well-beloved David Russell, Esquire, Colonel in Our Army, Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath;

Our trusty and well-beloved John Thomas Leslie, Esquire, Colonel in Our Indian Forces, Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath;

Our trusty and well-beloved John George Smyth, Esquire, Colonel in the 2nd Regiment of West York Militia; and

Our trusty and well-beloved Peter Blackburn, Esquire, one of the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury, Greeting :

Whereas We deem it expedient, that a Commission should issue for the purpose of enquiring into the present System of Recruiting our Army :

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, discretion, and ability, have authorized and appointed, and by these presents do authorize and appoint, you the said Beaumont, Baron Hotham, Sir Alexander Murray Tulloch, William Frederick Forster, David Russell, John Thomas Leslie, John George Smyth, and Peter Blackburn, to be Our Commissioners, to enquire into the present System of Recruiting Our Army, with the view of suggesting such changes in the existing regulations and organization of the recruiting department, as may tend to facilitate the raising of men in a more expeditious, satisfactory and economical manner, and to prevent desertion, and fully and carefully to consider these important subjects, and all matters relating thereto, which may appear to you to be necessary.

And for the better discovery of the truth in the premises, We do, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to make such enquiry as aforesaid, either in London or at the Recruiting Depôts, or other places of the United Kingdom, as to your judgments may seem best, and in the manner which you may deem most expedient, and to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the truth of the premises, and to enquire of the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do further, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, where the same shall appear to be requisite, to administer an oath or oaths to any person or persons whomsoever, to be examined before you, or any three or more of you, touching or concerning the premises.

And We do further, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, to cause all persons to bring and produce before you, or any three or more of you, all and singular records, books, papers, and other writings, touching the premises, which shall be in the custody of any of them.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you, or any three or more of you, upon due enquiry into the premises, do certify to us from time to time, under your hands and seals, your several proceedings as the same shall be completed, and do within the space of one year after the date of these presents, or sooner, if the same can reasonably be, certify to us in like manner the whole of your proceedings, under and by virtue of these presents, together with what you shall find, touching or concerning the premises, upon such enquiry as aforesaid, accompanied by such suggestions for the amendment of the system at present in existence, for Recruiting Our Army, and the means by which recruits may be more easily raised, and desertion prevented, as you may have to offer.

And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein mentioned, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do hereby command, all and singular, the Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving subjects whomsoever, as well within liberties as without, to be assistant to you, and each of you, in the execution of these presents.

And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our trusty and well-beloved John Milton, Esquire, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose services and assistance, as well as the services and assistance of such clerks and other persons as may appear to you to be necessary, We require you to use from time to time, as occasion shall require.

Given at Our Court at Osborne, this twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the twenty-second year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
(Signed) J. PEEL.

War-Office, March 31, 1859.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to make and ordain a Special Statute of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, for appointing the Right Honourable Viscount Canning, Governor-General of India, and the Right Honourable Lord Elphinstone, Governor of the Presidency of Bombay, to be Extra Members of the Civil Division of the First Class, or Knights Grand Cross, of the said Most Honourable Order.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER giving Notice of the Adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, in the Township of FAIRFIELD, in the county of Derby, and excluding a Portion of the said Township from the Operation of the said Act, within the said Township, and stating the time at which the said Act is to come into force within the said Township.

WHEREAS a resolution was, on the 24th day of February, 1859, duly passed at a meeting of owners and ratepayers of the township of Fairfield, in the parish of Hope, in the county of Derby, adopting the Local Government Act, 1858, within the said township, after the parish of Hope had refused to adopt such Act;

And whereas a petition has been duly presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, signed by not less than one-twentieth in number of the owners and ratepayers of the said township, such twentieth being also owners and ratepayers in respect of one-twentieth of the rateable property in such township, praying that a portion of the said township, shown on the map accompanying the said petition, should be excluded from the operation of the said Act, within the said township, the said portion being included within the boundaries set forth in another petition, for the settlement of a boundary under, and for the purposes of, the said Act, of a place to be called the Buxton District, for such purposes; and whereas the prayer of the first-mentioned petition has been duly inquired into and reported on by William Ranger, Esq., the Inspector appointed for such purpose;

Now, therefore, I, T. Sotheron-Estcourt, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:

1. That the portion of the township of Fairfield aforesaid, described in the schedule to this Order annexed, shall be excluded from the operation of the Local Government Act, 1858, within the township of Fairfield.

2. That the Local Government Act, 1858, shall have the force of law within the township of Fairfield, in the county of Derby (the portion described in the schedule to this Order annexed being excluded from the said township for the purposes of the said Act), from and after the 28th day of April, 1859.

Given under my hand this twenty-eighth day of March, 1858.

T. Sotheron-Estcourt.

Schedule referred to in the Preceding Order.

The following is the description of the portion of the township of Fairfield referred to in the preceding order, and which portion is to be excluded from the district of Fairfield for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858, and to be incorporated with the district of Buxton, to be formed for the purposes of the said Act.

Such portion of the said township of Fairfield is bounded by a line commencing at Yellow Brook, where it crosses the Gadly-lane; thence by the western side of the said lane, and bounded by the township of Fernilee, in the parish of Hope, to the junction of the said lane with the Manchester and Buxton Turnpike Road; thence in an easterly direction along the northern side of the said Turnpike Road, to a field, No. 187, in the tithe map, and belonging to John Vickers, then in the occupation of himself; thence along the south-eastern side of the said field to the south-western corner of a plantation, No. 196, in the Book of Reference of the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Hope, and belonging to His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, then in his own occupation; thence along the southern side of the said plantation, to a field No. 199, in the said Book of Reference, and belonging to James Beech, Esq., then in the occupation of James Gregory; thence along the western side of the said field, to Corbar-lane; thence along the northern side of Corbar-lane to Hog-shaw Lane; thence along the eastern side of the said Hog-shaw Lane, to its junction with the Stone-bench Road; thence along the eastern side of the Stone-bench Road, to the north-western side of Wye-bridge.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the petition of William Mossman, of No. 50, Cumming-street, Pentonville, in the parish of Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, Manufacturing Stationer, praying for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in machinery applied to embossing or cutting presses, for the better and more expeditious manner of manufacturing ornamental cut out and embossed work, in paper, leather, parchment, cloth, foil, and other materials," was deposited and recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 29th day of March, 1859, and a complete specification accompanying such petition, was at the same time filed in the said office.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that provisional protection has been allowed

2880. To Robert Wilson, Senr., and Robert Wilson, Junr., of Livesy-street, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "certain improvements in the preparation of leather in combination with indiarubber and other materials, for the manufacturing of hose pipes and other purposes where leather is required to be impervious to water, steam, or frost."

On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of December, 1858.

460. To Thomas Earle, of Clapham, in the county of Surrey, Contractor, for the invention of "improved apparatus for conveying signals to railway trains in motion."

462. And to William Basford, of Burslem, in the county of Stafford, Brick and Tile Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in the method of, and means for, drying bricks and tiles preparatory to their being burnt, and also in the construction of kilns or ovens for burning such bricks, tiles, pipes, pottery, or earthenware, and in the mode of charging or placing these said articles therein to be burnt or fired, and also in certain appliances for regulating the heat therein."

On their petitions, both recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 19th day of February, 1859.
No. 22245. C

516. To George Peover, of Wilmington-square, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, Mathematical Instrument Maker, for the invention of "an improved optical instrument, being an improvement upon the kaleidoscope."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 25th day of February, 1859.

600. To James King, of Moss Mill, near Rochdale, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinner and Manufacturer, and Alfred Wilcock, of the same place, Mechanic, for the invention of "improvements in certain parts of machines used in preparing, spinning, and doubling cotton and other fibrous materials."

Vice-Chancellor Stuart.—Thursday, the 24th day of March, in the 22nd year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1859; between William Henry Dawes, George Dawes and Thomas Geast Dawes, plaintiffs; James Walkinshaw, defendant.

UPON motion, this day made unto this Court, by Counsel for the Plaintiffs, it was alleged, that the plaintiffs, on the 20th day of September, 1855, filed their printed Bill in this Court against the defendant, having an indorsement thereon, in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and it appearing by the affidavit of John Combe, and the plaintiff, William Henry Dawes, filed the 5th day of March instant, that the defendant has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence had been used to serve the defendant personally with a copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and that the defendant cannot be found so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the defendant, and at other places where it was probable that the defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that he has absconded, or is keeping out of the way, to avoid being served with process; it was therefore prayed, and upon reading the said affidavit this Court doth order, that the defendant do appear to the plaintiffs' Bill, on or before the 25th day of April next; and it is ordered that the plaintiffs do cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof, to the effect set forth at the foot of the General Order of this Court, in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette, within 14 days from the date hereof, and in the Times and Morning Herald, daily newspapers, published in the city of London.

Notice.—James Walkinshaw, take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.

COMBE WAINWRIGHT,
Staple Inn, London, Plaintiffs' Solicitor.
