

reached the right bank of the river, a heavy fire was opened upon them, from, I believe, either Colonel Smyth's or Colonel Wilkinson's column, which has been continued almost without intermission up to the present hour.

I remained at the ghat for some time to prevent the rebels from returning, but, the report of the guns becoming fainter and fainter every moment, I felt assured they were driven completely from the Khyreeghur District, beyond which my instructions intimated I was not to proceed in pursuit. I rode upwards of forty miles yesterday, and thirty to day, which must be my excuse for not sending you a list of the casualties that occurred in the Mooltanee Cavalry and De Kantzow's Police, in the affair of yesterday.

I have, &c.,

M. G. DENNIS, Colonel,
Commanding Detachment Moveable Column.
