Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1859.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 26, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee, at St. James's Palace, upon Wednesday, the 11th of May next, at two o'clock:

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the Addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The members of a Deputation, who have not previously attended Court, must be presented to The Queen.

DE LA WARR,

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 28, 1859.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's Palace, upon Saturday the 7th of May next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOM, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

DE LA WARR.
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of April, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section sixteen, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation for altering the boundaries of the consolidated chapelry of Oakengates in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirty-first day of the following month, certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Wombridge and Shiffnal in the same county and diocese in such Order particularly described were formed into a consolidated chapelry for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Wombridge.

"And whereas such consolidated chapelry was called 'the Consolidated Chapelry of Oakengates.'

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the boundaries of such consolidated chapelry should be altered as is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, who, in right of his see, is patron of the said church called Trinity Church, of St. John Chiverton Charlton, of Apley Castle, in the same county, Esquire, patron of the said parish of Wombridge, and of the Reverend John Brooke, of Haughton, in the same county, Clerk, patron of the said parish of Shiffnal (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we beg leave to represent that it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakengates should be altered by severing therefrom all that part of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakengates, which heretofore formed part of the said parish of Wombridge, and which is situate to the north of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the road leading from Wellington to Oakengates and Pains-lane, and to the west of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of such last named road, which is opposite to the middle of the northern end of a cross road called Hart's Bridge-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned cross road to the boundary of the said consolidated chapelry, all such part so proposed to be severed from the said consolidated chapelry, being delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured yellow.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken into consideration the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed alteration of the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakengates by the severance therefrom of the territory delineated on the said map or plan be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of April, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Hornby, in the parish of Melling, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, of Saint Margaret, situate at Hornby aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Melling, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, and thereon coloured green, yellow, and blue, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hornby.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Bent Greside, Incumbent of the said parish of Melling, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Margaret, Hornby, shall be paid by the incumbent thereof to the said William Bent Greside.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet:

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those parts of the parish of Melling, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which are comprised within the townships of Hornby and Tarleton.

"And also all that part of the township of Roeburndale, in the said parish of Melling, which is not included in the particular district of Wray, in the same county and diocese."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Hornby, in the parish of Melling, in the county of Lancaster, be called "The District Chapelry of Hornby," be according made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

A 2

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of April, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Leck, in the parish of Tunstall, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Leck aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Tunstall, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, and is thereon edged with red, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Leck.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Tunstall, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester, which is comprised within the township of Leck.

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Leck, in the parish of Tunstall, in the county of Lancaster, to be called "The District Chapelry of Leck" be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of April, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, section nine, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Innocents, situate at Thornhill Lees, in the parish of Thornhill, in the county of York, and diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous parts of the parishes of Thornhill and Dewsbury, in the said county and diocese, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Innocents, situate at Thornhill Lees aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, Henry Savile, of Rufford Abbey, in the county of Nottingham, Esquire, patron of the said parish of Thornhill, and the Right Honourable Edward Geoffrey Earl of Derby, First Lord Commissioner of your Majesty's Treasury, patron on behalf of the Crown, of the said parish of Dewsbury, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous parts of the said parishes of Thornhill and Dewsbury, described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth in the map hereunto annexed, and are thereon respectively coloured yellow and green, should be united into one consolidated chapelry, for the said church of the Holy Innocents, situate at Thornhill Lees aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Thornhill Lees.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Henry Savile and Edward Geoffrey, Earl of Derby, as is testified as aforesaid, that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of Ripon for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those parts of the parishes of Thornhill and Dewsbury, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, wherein the respective incumbents of those parishes now possess the exclusive cure of souls, which are comprised within an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between the said parish of Thornhill and the parish of Mirfield in the same county and diocese, at a point marked A on the map hereunto annexed, which is opposite to the middle of the western end of a bridle road leading out of Hungerhill-lane to Thornhill Lees, in the said parish of Thornhill, and extending thence eastward and north eastward, along the middle of such bridle road, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of another road or path leading from certain premises called Paradise to a house or farm called Ouzelwell Hall, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned road or path to a point opposite to the middle of the western end of a footpath leading from Ouzelwell Hall aforesaid to a tram railway, called the Cromwell Colliery Railway, and extending thence eastward and north-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned footpath, for a distance of five hundred and one yards, to the middle of the bridge or culvert carrying a road or pathway opposite to a field, No. 437 on the tithe map of the township of Thornhill, and on the map hereunto annexed, towards the entrance to the Cromwell coal mine over a certain ditch or watercourse there which traverses the fields numbered respectively 439 and 440 on the said maps, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-named ditch or watercourse, for a distance of two hundred and sixty seven yards, to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries a pathway or bridle road leading from a close numbered 438 on the said maps to the Cromwell Colliery Railway over such last-mentioned watercourse, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned pathway or bridle road to the middle of the said Cromwell Colliery Railway, and extending thence southward and then eastward along the middle of such last-named railway to the middle of an occupation road or footpath leading from a farm called the Ings to Ingham's-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned occupation, road or footpath, and of Ingham's-lane aforesaid, across Moor-lane to the middle of the Thornhill-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such last-named road to the middle of the bridge which carries the same road over that branch of the Calder and Hebble Navigation Canal, which is known as the New Cut, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last-mentioned branch of the said canal to its point of junction with the branch of the same canal which is known as the Old Cut, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such last-named branch of the said canal to the centre of the bridge which carries the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway over such last-named branch of the said canal, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such last-named railway, for a distance of five hundred and fifty-six yards, to a point opposite to the mile post on the said railway marked B on the said map hereunto annexed, and extending thence due north in a straight line to the middle of the river Calder, and extending thence up the middle of such last-named river to a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the Dewsbury Canal, and extending thence due west in a straight line to the middle of the said north-eastern end of such last-named canal, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said last-named canal to the middle of the bridge which carries a lane called Fall-lane over the same, and extending thence northward along the middle of such last-named lane to the middle of the fence forming the north-western boundary of the London and North-Western Railway, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such last-named fence to the boundary between the said parish of Dewsbury and the said parish of Thornhill, and extending thence westward along such last-named boundary and south-westward and southward along the boundary between the said parish of Thornhill and the said parish of Mirfield to the hereinbefore mentioned point marked A on such last-named boundary."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration was pleased by, and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of the Holy Innocents, situate at Thornhill Lees, in the parish of Thornhill, in the county of York, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an Incumbent or Perpetual Curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and that the said right of presentation, and appointment of an Incumbent or Perpetual Curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the Bishop of Ripon, for the time being; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY LLANDILO, CARMARTHENSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted by the town and villa of Llandilo; in the county of Carmarthen; on the 4th day of April, 1859; and notice of such adoption was duly given, in writing, on that day to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Carmarthen Journal, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid place, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in Llandilo, to which notices are usually affixed, and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act, by such town and villa, has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said town and villa of Llandilo, in the county of Carmarthen, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such town and villa.

Given under my hand this twenty-seventh day of April, 1859.

I, George Shovelbottom, do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I believe the preceding four sheets of paper* to contain a true and faithful Return of all sums of Money received and paid by me, and Balances paid into the Treasury, at Melbourne, at the date of this Return; and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, by virtue of the provisions of an Act, made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof, and for the suppression of voluntary and judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

Declared before me, at Melbourne, this 24th day of January, A.D., 1859,
ROBERT S. ANDERSON, J.P.

* This refers to the manuscript.

GEORGE SHOVELBOTTOM,
Curator of Intestate Estates, Melbourne, Victoria.

Inserted pursuant to instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies by the Agents-General for Crown Colonies, 5, Cannon-row, Westminster.—29th April, 1859.

CONTRACTS FOR PEPPER, VINEGAR, WHEAT, AND SPLIT PEAS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-House, April 23, 1859.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 12th May next, at half past one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores, at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Pepper, 5 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Wheat, 3,000 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Split Peas, 500 quarters; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The pepper to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the pepper (not less than 2 lbs.), and of the wheat and peas (not less than 2 quarts of each), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may purpose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered to be No. 20, trade denomination.

The vinegar to be delivered in good, sound, strong, and substantial casks, which are to be retained as long as required by the said Commissioners or their officers without payment therefor, but are to be taken back from the said Victualling Stores (when emptied) by and at the expense of the contractor.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to the Officer conducting the Packet Service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.

The conditions of the revised contracts, to which particular attention is called, may be seen at the said Office, and at Liverpool and Bristol.

No tender will be received after half past one o'clock on the day of treaty, and it will not be required the hatt party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-House.

(Registered.)

NOTICE is hereby given that the sixth Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Eastern Marine Insurance Company will be held at No. 8, St. Helen's-place, E. C., on Monday, May 2nd, 1859, at one o'clock precisely.

Finlay Hodgson and Co., Secretaries.

European Gas Company.

No. 3, Moorgate-Street, London,
April 27, 1859.

IT having been suggested by some of the Proprietors, for consideration, whether it was not expedient, firstly, to divide each £20 share of the Company into two shares of £10 each, and, secondly, to incorporate the Company, as a Limited Company, under the "Joint Stock Companies Acts, 1856 and 1857" (19 and 20 Vic., cap. 47; and 20 and 21 Vic., cap. 14), in order to secure the advantages of limited liability.

Notice is hereby given that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the office of the Company, No. 3, Moorgate-street, London, on Friday, the 13th day of May, 1859, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, to consider and decide on adopting, or otherwise, certain resolutions, which will be submitted to the meeting for effecting the above objects, and for repealing all or any of the clauses of the deed of settlement of the Company, and the alterations and additions made thereto at various times, and for substituting such laws, rules, regulations, or articles of association as may appear desirable and necessary for the Government of the business of the Company under the above-mentioned Acts.

By order of the Board,

H. Mc. L. Backler, Secretary.

The Mersey Graving Dock Company, Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the above Company, held at the office of Messrs. Carson, Ellis, and Field, Talbot Chambers, No. 3, Fenwick-street, Liverpool, on the 25th day of April, 1859, of which a month's previous notice, published in the London Gazette, has been given, it was resolved that the affairs of the Company had been fairly wound up according to the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1856.

Francis A. Clint, Deputy Chairman.
Harmood W. Banner, Liquidator.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at a General Meeting of the National Advance and Deposit Company, limited, held on the 21st day of April, 1857, it was resolved,

"That the accounts of the Official Liquidator having been considered, this Meeting is of opinion that the affairs of the National Advance and Deposit Company, limited, have been fairly wound up."

Dated this 27th day of April, 1859.

W. H. Miller, Liquidator.
