"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirty-first day of the following month, certain contiguous portions of the parishes of Wombridge and Shiffnal in the same county and diocese in such Order particularly described were formed into a consolidated chapelry for the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate in the said parish of Wombridge.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be expedient that the boundaries of such consolidated chapelry should be altered as is hereinafter mentioned.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken into consideration the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed alteration of the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Oakengates by the severance therefrom of the territory delineated on the said map or plan be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
