

thereon edged pink, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Philip and Saint James, Ilfracombe.'

"And with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Exeter, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Mill Chanter, Incumbent of the said parish of Ilfracombe, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of burials at the said church of Saint Philip and Saint James, Ilfracombe, shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said John Mill Chanter.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the parish of Ilfracombe, in the county of Devon, in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate to the east and north of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary of the said parish, in the middle of a certain footpath leading from the eastern side of Capstone Hill to Compass Hill, at a point opposite to where a boundary stone marked with letters St. P. & St. J. has been placed, and extending thence southward along such last-mentioned footpath, and along the middle of the road which connects the roads called Compass Hill and James's Place to the middle of the last-named road, and extending thence westward along the middle of such last-named road to the middle of the road in front of a certain Wesleyan chapel, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the middle of the bridge which carries such road over the town-mill stream, and extending thence up the middle of such last-named stream to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a wall forming the western boundary of the garden numbered 348 on the tithe-apportionment map of the said parish of Ilfracombe, and on the map hereunto annexed, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such wall to the middle of the public path called the Backway, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such last-mentioned path to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a passage called Down's Passage, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such last-named passage to the middle of Fore-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such last-named street to its point of junction with High-street and Portland-street, and extending thence eastward and southward along the middle of such last-named street, and southward along the middle of the Barnstaple Turnpike-road to the boundary of the said parish of Ilfracombe."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Philip and Saint James, situate at Ilfracombe, in the parish of Ilfracombe, in the county of Devon, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Philip and Saint James, Ilfracombe," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May, 1859.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Wormhill, in the parish of Tideswell, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Wormhill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Tideswell, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Wormhill.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or
