At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the Minster Churchyard, BEVERLEY, from the first of May to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In St. John's Churchyard, in St. Mary's additional churchyard, in the Cemetery, in Ebenezer and Zion Burial-grounds, and in the Tabernacle and Bethany Burial-grounds, all in the borough of CARDIFF, from the first of May to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard of the parish of CLAYBROOK, near Lutterworth, from the first of June to the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the burial-ground of St. Martin's Chapel, FENNY STRATFORD, in the parish of Bletchley, from the first of May to the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard of MALTBY, Yorkshire, from the first of May to the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

In the burial-ground of Trinity Church, ROTHERHITHE, from the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, on the following conditions, viz., that only one body be buried in each grave; that no ground which has been buried in be reopened, except in the case of family vaults and graves, provided that one foot of earth be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin, and that no body be buried without a covering of four feet at least; that no body be buried within three yards of the wall of the church, of the National Schools, or of any dwelling-house; and that the only bodies interred be those of parishioners of Holy Trinity parish, except in the case of persons having relatives already buried in this churchyard.

Whereas by an Order in Council of the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of MERE, Wilts, from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, which period was afterwards extended to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said order be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments in the said churchyard be discontinued, except for those whose husbands, wives, or children have been buried therein, provided that each coffin be embedded in charcoal, and entombed in an airtight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the New Parochial Burial Ground in the parish of PETERBOROUGH, and it seems fit that the said order be varied; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following vaults and graves in the said burial-ground be excepted from the operation of the above-mentioned Order in Council, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy; viz.: vaults or brick graves therein in which, at the time of the passing of the Peterborough Improvement Police and Cemetery Act, 1850, there was a right of private sepulture.
