“We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“All that part of the township of Fachwen, in the parish of Llanfihangel-yn-Gwynfa, in the county of Montgomery, and diocese of Saint Asaph, which is situate to the south-west of an imaginary line, extending along the middle of a stream or rivulet called or known as Nant Caunant.

And also all that part of the township of Llwydiarth, in the same parish, county, and diocese, which is situate to the south and west of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary between such last-named township and the said township of Fachwen, in the middle of a certain stream or rivulet called or known as Nant Coed-yr-Ystrad, and extending thence, eastward, along the middle of such last-named stream or rivulet to the middle of the road leading from a place called Pentre to Llwydiarth, and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of another road leading from Llwydiarth aforesaid to Dolwar Fach, and extending thence, southward, along the middle of such last-mentioned road to the boundary between the townships of Llwydiarth and Dolwar; and also all those several portions of the parish of Llangadfan, in the same county and diocese, which are respectively comprised within the townships of Cowney and Cyffin.”

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned, for the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Fachwen, in the parish of Llanfihangel-yn-Gwynfa, in the county of Montgomery, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, Sir Watkin Williams Wynn, of Wynnstay, in the county of Denbigh, Baronet, his heirs and assigns; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.
