

And I do, with the like consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, given under the hands of two of the said Commissioners (by the authority aforesaid) whose names are hereunder signed and written as aforesaid, by virtue of the said recited Act, and of the power for that purpose therein contained, make and issue the following orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions which I deem to be necessary and expedient for the purpose of regulating the receipt, transmission, and delivery by post of the said several printed newspapers, and the said several printed periodical publications, under the provisions of the said recited Act, in lieu of the said several regulations as hereinbefore rescinded and revoked as aforesaid, that is to say—

Periodical publications (including newspapers) transmitted by post between places within the United Kingdom.

13. If any of the foregoing regulations shall be disregarded, any officer of the post-office may detain the publication for examination until the next mail; if the irregularity shall be found to consist merely in not folding the paper so as to expose the stamp or stamps, or in posting the publication within the free delivery of the town or place to which it is addressed, without pre-paying the postage of one penny by affixing a postage stamp thereon, a postage of one penny shall be charged in addition to any other postage to which the publication, if properly folded or posted, would have been liable. In the event of any other irregularity, the publication shall be dealt with in accordance with the regulations contained in the Treasury Warrant of the 16th day of October, 1857, or of such other regulations as shall for the time being be in force relating to the transmission by the post of book-packets between places within the United Kingdom.

British newspapers transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to British colonies and foreign countries.

3. All such newspapers, whether they shall have been published more than fifteen days or not, may be forwarded to any British colony or foreign country between which and the United Kingdom packets, consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, may be transmitted by the post under or by virtue of any Treasury Warrant now or hereafter in force, under the regulations contained in any such Warrant relating to the transmission of any such packet between the United Kingdom and any such colony or foreign country.

Newspapers, British, colonial, or foreign, brought into the United Kingdom by packet-boat or private ship, or transmitted by the post between any ports or places beyond the sea, whether through the United Kingdom or not.

4. Every Foreign Newspaper may be printed either in the language of the country from which it shall be forwarded or in any other language.

Witness our hands this twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

EWELL.

WHEREAS an Appeal, under the 18th section of the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly made to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by a certain owner and ratepayer within the parish of Ewell, in the county of Surrey, setting forth grounds on which he disputes the validity of a vote for the adoption of the said Act within the said district. And whereas a petition, duly signed by owners and ratepayers of and in the said parish, praying for the exclusion of the said parish from the operation of the said Act, has also been lodged with me in pursuance of the said Act. And whereas inquiry has been duly directed into the circumstances of the case, and such inquiry has been duly made, and the result thereof reported to me as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State :

Now, therefore, I do issue the following order, and do determine the question arising on such appeal, and such petition, as follows :

That the Local Government Act, 1858, has not been duly adopted within the said parish.

Given under my hand this 1st day of June, 1859.
