AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1859,

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of ALSTON, Cumberland, from the first of June instant, to the first of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In the churchyard of BARNARD CASTLE, in the parish of Gainford, Durham, from the first of June to the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the burial-ground of Bethesda, or the Methodist New Connexion Chapel, DUKINFIELD, from the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, provided that, (with the exception of family vaults and graves) no more than one body be buried in each grave, and that no grave be opened within five yards of any dwelling-house or school;

In EARSDON Parish Churchyard, and in the burial-ground of Blyth chapel, in that parish, from the first of June to the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard of the parish of HALTWHISTLE, Northumberland, from the first of July next, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In St. James's Churchyard, HECKMONDWIKE, in the parish of Birstal, Yorkshire, from the first of June instant, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In the churchyard of KIRBY MISPERTON, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine;

In the churchyard, and in the Wesleyan and Independent Burial-grounds, MIDDLEWICH, from the first of June instant, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty;

In the Independent Chapel Burial-ground in St. Mary's parish, and in the two Baptist Burial-grounds, in St. Peter's parish, WALLINGFORD, from the first of June instant, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the thirty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, burials were directed to be discontinued, from and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the parish churchyard of FINCHLEY, with certain exceptions therein mentioned, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the ancient portion of the said parish churchyard of Finchley, with the exception of now existing family graves, be closed as directed by the said Order in Council, from and after the first of this instant June; and it is also ordered that the time for closing the new part of the said churchyard be, and it is hereby extended to the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, when, with the exception of now existing family graves, it is to be closed; and it is also ordered that family earthen graves therein be used only on the following conditions: that they be opened without the disturbance of human remains; that one foot of earth be left between each coffin; that no body be buried within four feet of the surface; and that the only bodies interred be those of the husband, wife, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already buried therein.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the fourth of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials were directed to be discontinued wholly in WEST HACKNEY Churchyard, from and after the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and, it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the use of the family vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard be still permitted, after the said first day of August, on the following conditions, viz.: that when required they be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented; and that the only bodies interred be those of the husband, wife, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already buried therein.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, certain regulations were made with regard to the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Roman Catholic Chapel, and of Salem Chapel, in GREAT MARLOW, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that interments be discontinued in the said churchyard and burial-grounds within three yards of any house, and that, in the rest of the said churchyard and burial-grounds, burials be conducted according to the Regulations for New Burial Grounds, omitting the third.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fifteenth day of July.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Thomas Sotherton Estcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the parish of WOODSTOCK, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments should be discontinued in Woodstock churchyard, on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and entombed in an air-tight manner.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of July next;

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fifteenth day of July.

State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such acts to be done by, or under the directions of, the churchwardens, or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do, or cause to be done, all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish; provided always, that no such representation should be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;
