AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the district of Halsetown, in the county of Cornwall, and in the Diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the nineteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifth day of June in the same year, the district of Halsetown was constituted out of the parish of Saint Ives, in the said county of Cornwall.”

“And whereas such district has not yet become a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, as contemplated by the before-mentioned Act.

“And whereas no special assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the Minister of the said district, or, so soon as the same should become a new parish as aforesaid, of the perpetual curate thereof, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

“And whereas Robert Hichens, of Threadneedle-street, in the City of London, and of the Grove, East Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, has paid the sum of one thousand pounds into an account kept by us at the Bank of England, upon the understanding that the arrangements hereinafter mentioned should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose, in consideration of the payment to us of the said sum of one thousand pounds, that the whole right of patronage of the district or New Parish of Halsetown, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, or of the perpetual curate thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day upon which such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Robert Hichens, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of one thousand pounds shall be applied by us in or towards the erection of a parsonage house as a residence for the perpetual curate for the time being of the said district or New Parish of Halsetown, upon certain land which has been secured for that purpose, and which is situate within such district.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
