HER Majesty in Council, upon a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, is pleased to appoint the Reverend Joseph Woolley, M.A., and LL.D., late Fellow of Saint John's College, Cambridge, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools; and to order that his appointment bear date the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, situate partly in the city of London, and partly in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the patronage of the church of the said parish is vested in, and belongs to Robert Sutton, of No. 44, Queen Ann-street, Cavendish-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, and he is willing and has agreed to transfer such patronage to the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London.

"And whereas, with a view to making better provision for the incumbent for the time being of such parish, the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has paid to us the sum of one hundred pounds, which monies were subscribed by the parish of Aldgate, upon the understanding and faith that we the said Commissioners should submit to your Majesty in Council, the recommendations with respect to the patronage of the church of the said parish, and the annual payment to the incumbent of such parish, which are hereinafter accordingly made.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and Robert Sutton, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that the advowson and perpetual right of patronage and presentation to the said parish, and parish church of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, aforesaid, and all the estate right, title, use, trust, property, claim and demand therein, of the said Robert Sutton, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be assigned to and absolutely vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of the said church, the fixed annual sum of three pounds six shillings and four pence, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of November next.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.
