

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 29th day of July, 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of an Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, section sixteen; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, section three; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church, called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church, called Christ Church, situate at Wellington aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wellington, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Wellington.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those portions of the townships of Arles-tone and Lugomery in the parish of Wellington in the county of Salop, and diocese of Lichfield, which are situate to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Great Western Railway.

"And also all that portion of the township of Watling-street, in the same parish which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the road which leads from Hunting-ton through Steeraway into the Watling-street turnpike-road; and also all that portion of the township of Wellington in the said parish of Wellington, which lies to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Great Western Railway aforesaid, and to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the street called Smithfield-street, over the said railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last named street, and along the middle of Nailor's Row, and of a passage called White Horse Passage leading from such last named Row to New-street, to the middle of New-street aforesaid, and extending thence northwestward along the middle of such last named street, to a point opposite to the middle of the Northern end of a new road called Robinson's-road, and extending thence southwestward along the middle of such last named New Road to the middle of Jarratt's-lane, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such last named lane, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the fence which divides the close, numbered 1269 on the Tithe Map of the said parish of Wellington, and on the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 1276, 1277, and 1278, on such maps, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last mentioned fence, to the middle of a footpath leading from Brewery-street, to Wrekin-road, and extending thence southeastward along the middle of the said last mentioned footpath to the middle of Brewery-street aforesaid, and extending thence southward along the middle of such last named street, to the boundary between the said townships of Wellington and Watling-street."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Christ Church, situate in the parish of Wellington, in the county of Salop, to be called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Wellington," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
